State Register of Motor Vehicles Asks Clerk of Courts to Supplement Reports of Convictions With Data That

Those Convicted That Licenses May Immediately Be Revoked

Register of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin has written to Clerk Edward W. Trull of the Lowell district court, saying that "it is vitally important to take reckless and drunken drivers off the highways as soon as possible."

Because of this, he has asked the clerk, whenever a driver is convicted in district court of operating while drunk, or in a reckless manner, to supplement the report to the state highway commission with the address, date of birth and license number of the man so convicted.

This is essential to speedy revocation of their licenses, the register states, as there are now approximately 500,000 operators in the state carrying licenses, and as many of the names are similar, it is at times unable to locate some of them without delay.

DEMPSEY TIPS BEAM AT 192 1-2

100 New Jersey Undertakers
Have Ringside Seats for Tonight's Fight

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) When Jack Dempsey lands his heavyweight title against Luis Angel Firpo tonight at the Polo Grounds, he will weigh more than at any time in his championship career. He scaled 192½ this afternoon when weighed before the state athletic commission. His challenger had not put in an appearance when the titleholder stepped off the scales.

Undertakers at Ringside
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—One hundred members of the New Jersey Funeral Directors' association, who have just been in convention, have bought ringside tickets for the Polo Grounds tonight.

Having been knocked out by both men, Jess Willard arrived in town today with a ringside ticket to see Firpo and Dempsey try to knock each other out.

"Firpo," said Willard, "is a big and awkward man, and slow too, but he can hit like a mule. He is a strong fellow, and I think the fight is a toss up."

So happy were the crowds to greet Jess that he held the bandstand privilege in the lobby of the Belmont hotel, Dempsey's headquarters, for an hour.

A dozen women were among the 400 who were up at daylight standing in line at the Polo grounds for the first choice at the cheapest seats to see the fight.

As the morning wore on, the long line lengthened with a great influx of small boys who intended to hold choice places until late in the day and then sell them to late comers for what they could get.

ITALY YIELDS WAR AVERTED

Finally Consents to Evacuate Corfu Before End of Present Month

Greece to Punish Murderers of Italian Members of Mission

PARIS, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) The danger to the peace of Europe from the Italian occupation of Corfu ended last night when after another difficult session, the ambassadors' council came to a full agreement. Italy finally consented to evacuate Corfu before the end of September.

It is also understood the council agreed that if, on the date of evacuation the inter-allied commission of inquiry reports that Greece has not done all possible to discover and punish the assassins of the Italian members of the Greco-Italian boundary mission, the 50,000,000 lire deposited by the Greek government shall be paid over to the Italian government as reparations.

Up to almost the last moment the Italians insisted that the powers ought to take Premier Mussolini's word as to the evacuation and leave it to him to fix the exact date after the cooperation measures had been carried out.

The British ambassador insisted quite as strongly that peace operations throughout the world ought to be reassured by a definite arrangement that would put an end to the talk that Italy intended to remain in Corfu indefinitely. He asked that the Italian premier choose a fixed date which would be nearly enough to set all speculation as to Italy's intentions at rest.

The allies assured the Italian ambassador that the greatest diligence would be exercised in pursuing the inquiry into the assassination of Gen. Tellini and the other members of the Italian boundary commission and pleaded with him to urge Rome to accept the desire of Great Britain and fix a precise date for the evacuation of Greek territory, so as to relieve the world of anxiety. The afternoon session was postponed until 5 o'clock.

Dismembered Body Found in Merrimack River Believed to Be That of East Bridgewater Woman

District Attorney Reading Announces Identity of Tyngsboro Suitcase Victim—Mrs. George Wolschendorf Missing Since August 27, When She Was Seen Entering Offices of Dr. Robb in Back Bay, Boston—Local Resume of Suitcase Mystery

CAMBRIDGE, Sept. 14.—The woman whose dismembered body was found in the Merrimack river in two suitcases two weeks ago is believed to have been Mrs. George Wolschendorf, East Bridgewater, District Attorney Arthur K. Reading of Middlesex county announced today. Mrs. Wolschendorf had been missing since Aug. 27, according to information in the hands of the Middlesex county authorities. She was the mother of four children, the eldest being 20 years old and the youngest 12.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S STATEMENT

The following official statement for the press was made by District Attorney Reading shortly after noon today:

"For several weeks the state police have been seeking to learn the whereabouts of Mrs. Alice M. Wolschendorf, wife of George E. Wolschendorf of East Bridgewater.

"Mrs. Wolschendorf was 43 years of age; approximately five feet four inches in height, gray-haired and bluish gray eyes. She was rather stocky and weighed approximately 145 pounds.

"She was last seen on August 27 entering the office of Dr. William N. Robb at 353 Massachusetts avenue, Boston, Mass. All efforts to locate her through relatives and friends have proven fruitless. At the time she was last seen Mrs. Wolschendorf wore a blue and white check dress and was carrying a 16-inch russet colored bag."

Search For Dr. Robb Continues

The search for Dr. William M. Robb, a physician, with offices in the Back Bay, continued today. It was said that information given by members of the Wolschendorf family led the authorities to the search for him, which so far has been unsuccessful.

It was on Sept. 1 that a black suitcase was found floating in the Merrimack river below the Tyngsboro bridge, which when drawn to the bank was found to contain the upper part of the torso of a woman. The next day a similar suitcase was found containing the legs of the same body. Search in the river and surrounding countryside failed to reveal the missing head and until today the authorities refused to disclose what clues they were following.

Dr. Dalva Swope of Brockton was called here yesterday. It became known today, and was questioned at length by District Attorney Reading. What transpired at the conference has not been made public. It was said that George Wolschendorf, husband of the missing woman, Thomas Haven of Brockton and Harold Wolschendorf were also questioned.

Two more hours were occupied by the ambassadors at the evening session before they would come to an agreement, but eventually it was announced with an air of great relief that Italy had agreed to evacuate. An official communique issued soon afterwards said:

"The ambassadors' council has adopted a resolution which is considered such as will put an end to the situation created by the assassination of the Italian delegation. The solution will be immediately transmitted to Athens and also communicated to the league council and will be made public at noon Friday."

Dr. Swope Refrains to Talk

BROCKTON, Sept. 14.—Miss Mildred Wolschendorf, accompanied by a local newspaperman, were denied admittance to the home of Dr. D. H. Swope of Perkins street, today. The girl is the woman's daughter and she desired to have an interview with the physician.

"I have nothing to say. I have been advised to say nothing," declared Dr. Swope.

RECONSTRUCTION WORK $50,000 TRANSFER OF TENEMENT PROPERTY

Cost of Rebuilding Tokio and Yokohama Will Approximate $5,000,000,000

TOKIO, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) It is estimated that the cost of reconstruction work in Tokio and Yokohama will approximate 10,000,000,000 yen ($5,000,000,000).

A nation wide syndicate of bankers has been organized to assist the government in rebuilding the devastated area, and the empire is asked to devote all surplus fund for this purpose.

The banking syndicate announces it will raise the additional money required by reconstruction by local and foreign loans.

WILD FOR GIRLS' DEATH
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 14.—Ben F. Morse, prominent merchant of Glendale, Tennessee, is held here on a charge of manslaughter, while Coroner J. R. Allen is preparing for an inquest into the death of an unidentified woman whose body was found on a roadside near here yesterday afternoon. Morse declared to officers that the woman had been accidentally killed when struck by his automobile.

A transfer of dwelling house property in Belvidere, involving upwards of $50,000 recently has been made, whereby George C. Fairburn, owner of Fairburn's market, has purchased from Simon Cassis seven blocks embracing 33 tenements.

The property is located in Chestnut street and Chestnut square, situated between Birch and Willow streets.

Mr. Fairburn said today he purchased for investment. No real estate broker was involved in the transfer.

REPORTED THAT BOSTON & MAINE WILL BUILD HOME FOR WORKERS AT BILLERICA CAR SHOP

Homes for Boston & Maine carshop workers may be built in Billerica by the corporation.

Rumors to the effect that the railroad plans to provide corporation-owned homes for their employees in the carshops have been gaining credence for the past few days. High officials of the B. & M. are reticent and can give no confirmation or denial of the truth in the report.

Since April, 1922, when the shopmen all over the system went out on strike, the B. & M. has had its troubles with the "replacement workers" imported from the four corners of the earth to keep the wheels turning throughout the system. Every attraction has been held out to keep these men satisfied and contented with their jobs. This mainly because of the solid front of union workers who have stuck by their guns throughout the long strike and have insisted that their demands be met.

Not to have any trouble with the new men the railroad has had to handle them most carefully ever since their

10 P. C. Increase for Shoe Workers

BROCKTON, Sept. 14.—The Brockton Shoe Manufacturers' association at 10 o'clock announced a general 10 per cent increase to take effect Sept. 30. The increase had been requested by the joint shoe council some time ago, following the settlement of a strike, conducted by independent factions who desired to break away from the Boot & Shoe Workers Union. A 10 per cent cut in wages was announced in March, 1922, by the state board of arbitration and since that time, matters have been more or less disturbed. The increase will affect approximately 13,500 operatives, employed in 63 factories.

Admiral Receives Drastic Orders to Put Down Revolt Headed by Riviera

MADRID, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Spanish cabinet resigned this morning. King Alfonso has returned to the capital.

It is understood that the premier requested his majesty to grant the government facilities for punishment of the military revolts in Barcelona and elsewhere. The king refused and the premier thereupon submitted the resignation of the entire cabinet.

The newspaper A B C says it understands that Primo Rivera, captain-general of Barcelona and leader of the military movement against the government, will preside over a direct

TWO HELD FOR ASSAULT ON POLICE OFFICER

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—Edward P. Simpson, alias Thomas Flynn and Charles Leventhal, both of Boston, were arrested today on a charge of assault upon a police officer with a dangerous weapon after Patrolman Harrison A. Dugan had found them in an automobile which contains a large quantity of house dresses said to be valued at about $1000. Dugan said that Simpson pointed a revolver at him when he started to question the men. The police said they believed the dresses had been stolen from a store or factory in Brockton.

To Proclaim Martial Law
MADRID, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—King Alfonso this afternoon asked Captain-General Primo Rivera, leader of the military movement against the Albuquerca cabinet, to form a government.

Troops Held in Barracks
MADRID, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) A semi-official statement issued here today says:

"In view of the fact that the words 'military rising' have been repeatedly used in telegrams describing the situation in Spain, may lead to an incorrect interpretation of the position. It is necessary to emphasize that in Madrid, and according to all information received here, at Barcelona, Saragossa, Bilbao and other provincial towns, calm prevails.

"All troops are everywhere confined to their barracks. The streets and public places maintain their accustomed aspect, all shops and public establishments are open and traffic is circulating normally.
"No cessation of work has occurred."

To Put Down Revolt
PARIS, Sept. 14.—A Spanish naval squadron has arrived at Barcelona and it is understood that the admiral has received drastic orders to put down the revolt headed by Captain-General Primo Rivera, says a dispatch to Le Journal from San Sebastian.

King Alfonso, accompanied by Jose Sanchez Guerra, the former premier, left for Madrid last evening, the correspondent asserts. He adds that the situation is extremely confused but that the prevailing impression at San Sebastian is that Rivera will succeed in overthrowing the government.
All communication with France by telephone has been interrupted since yesterday morning and the strictest censorship has been established.

Foreigners Under Surveillance
BARCELONA, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) Leaders of the revolutionary movement are keeping foreigners under close surveillance and are granting to only a few persons permission to cross the frontier. Captain-General Primo Rivera explained in an interview that the purpose of the movement was "cleaning up politics and making them honest."
The revolt has extended to Madrid, according to Rivera, although the officers there have been kept to their barracks.
Information received at Barcelona, the captain-general affirmed, led to the belief that the government would resign when the king reached the capital.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF JOHN J. KELTY

Members of practically every Catholic church choir of the city, many clergymen and hundreds of Lowell and out-of-town people, were in attendance at the funeral services of John J. Kelty, former organist at the Sacred Heart Church, which took place this morning at St. Margaret's church.

The funeral cortege, headed by an automobile filled with floral offerings, left his home, 322 Pine street, and wound its way to the church, where at 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated. Practically every pew in the church was taken, for deceased was well and favorably known in this city. The celebrant of the mass was the pastor, Rev. Charles J. Galligan, who was assisted by Rev. Andrew O'Brien, as deacon and Rev. Bernard Fletcher, O.M.I., as sub-deacon. Seated within the sanctuary were Rev. Dr. John J. McGarry, pastor of St. Patrick's; Rev. Dr. James Supple, Rev. Denis A. Sullivan, O.M.I., pastor of the Sacred Heart church; Rev. Wil-

Ham Mahan, O.M.I., Rev. Fr. Coffey, O.M.I., Rev. James McCarthy, O.M.I., Rev. Francis X. McGann, O.M.I., and Rev. T. Franklin Wood, O.M.I.

The choir, augmented for the occasion by representatives of numerous Catholic church choirs of the city, rendered the Gregorian chant under the direction of L. N. Gutbuit, who also presided at the organ. The solos of the "Dies Irae" were sustained by William Cookin of the Immaculate Conception church. At the offertory Miss Kathleen Jennings of the Sacred Heart church sang "Leyla's 'Die Jesu'"; and after elevation Miss Stella Lalour of St. Joseph's church rendered Rogewick's "O Mortum Passionale." The solos of the Libera were sustained by Andrew McCarthy. Among those in the choir were the following: Mrs. Nana Gallagher, Leahy, and James King, Immaculate Conception church; Miss Bella Lavigne, organist at Notre Dame de Lourdes; Mrs. Ella Kelly Toye, organist at St. Michael's; Joseph Egan, Miss Anne Lynch and John McHugh, Sacred Heart church; Michael A. Johnson, organist at St. Patrick's; Dr. E. Cuscraft, St. Jean Baptiste church; and E. J. Larnochelle, St. Jeanne d'Arc church.

The bearers were Thomas J. Sayers, George A. Kerwin, John M. Spillane, John H. McMahon, James J. Cullen and James P. McMahon. The C.F. M.L., of which deceased was a member, was represented by John J. Mahoney, William J. Monahan, James P. Lannon, Joseph J. Lissian, Charles H. O'Neil and Fred Enwright. The ushers at the house and church were Joseph Hennessy and Joseph Heathcote. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. C. J. Galligan, assisted by Rev. D. A. Sullivan, O.M.I., Rev. T. P. Wood, O.M.I., and Rev. Bernard Fletcher, O.M.I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers O'Connell & Fay.

FUNERALS

PACHECO—The funeral of Antonio Pacheco took place this morning at 9 o'clock from his late home, 61 Chapel street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral cortege proceeded to St. Anthony's church where at 10 o'clock, Rt. Rev. Bishop Henry De Silva's mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Bishop De Silva, assisted by Rev. Eugene Vincent as deacon, and Francisco Gauthier as master of ceremonies. The choir sang the Gregorian chant, the solos being sustained by Mrs. Evelyn S. Donnelly, Mrs. Rose Hannas, Mrs. Mary F. McMahon, Miss Marie O'Donnell presiding at the organ. There was a profusion of beautiful floral offerings. The bearers were Manuel M. Santos and George Pacheco, Jr., of the latter's family. Burial took place in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Vincent. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers M. H. McElmough Sons.

MORSE—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Morse took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from the funeral parlors of James W. McKenna Sons, and was largely attended. The cortege proceeded to St. Michael's church where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Aloysius J. Madden. The choir under the direction of Miss Margaret Griffin rendered the Gregorian chant, the solos being sustained by Mrs. Margaret McDonough, Maguire and Mrs. Griffin. Mrs. Ella Kelly Toye presided at the organ. There were many floral offerings as well as spiritual bouquets. The bearers were Messrs. Charles Johnson, James O'Donnell, James McElmough and William Griffin. The burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Madden read the committal prayers at the grave. The arrangements were in charge of Funeral Directors James W. McKenna Sons.

JOHNSON—Funeral services for Mrs. Eva C. Johnson were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emil C. Lind in Riverneck road, yesterday afternoon, and were largely attended. Rev. C. H. Ellis of the Central Baptist church officiated at the house and read the committal service at the grave in Pine Ridge cemetery. The bearers were Emil C. Lind, A. M. Gray, Peter Clark and Herman Swanson. There were many beautiful flowers. Arrangements were in charge of Undertakers Parkman.

ADIE—Mrs. Margaret Adie, aged 68 years, a well known and highly respected resident of St. Peter's parish, died suddenly at her home, 31 Lyons street. She was survived by two sons, William and James Adie.

A memorial mass for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adams, requested by friends, was celebrated this morning at 8 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church. There was a large congregation present. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. J. B. McGarrin, O.M.I. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Walker, who also presided at the organ, rendered the Gregorian chant. At the offertory Mrs. Walker and Chas. P. Smith rendered "De Profundis."

OPENS NEW STORE IN BRIDGE STREET

C. H. Willis, proprietor of the big market in Prescott and Merrimack streets, opened his new store in Bridge street, Centralville, today. This makes the third Willis store in Lowell, another link of the chain being operated in the Highlands. Mr. Willis has been catering to the wants of the Lowell public for the past 25 years and has built an enviable reputation of which he is justly proud.

Twenty-five years ago, then only a boy, Mr. Willis came to Lowell from Ware and entered the employ of Pike's market in Middlesex street. He learned the business from a to z and soon opened a small store of his own on Westford street. He kept abreast of the times and the Lowell Public Market in the square reflects his business ability.

Mr. Willis modestly disclaims great credit for his success, saying it is the natural result of striving to give the public what it wants the way it wants it, as reasonable as it can be had. Operating on a small margin of profit, he has built a big business in Lowell. He now plans a group of chain stores eventually encircling the entire city. The Centralville unit is just a step in conjunction with this scheme. From time to time he plans to further expand. His loyal employees and satisfied customers unite in wishing him continued success in his undertakings.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Frank A. Groves Elected
Grand Knight by Local Council—Other Officers

At one of the biggest and most enthusiastic meetings of Lowell council, 72, Knights of Columbus, last night, Frank A. Groves, a popular member of the organization, was elected grand knight to succeed John E. Hart, who has filled the position for the past two years. He will assume office at the annual installation exercises next month.

FRANK A. GROVES

been a member of the local council for upwards of seventeen years and prominent in its activities. During the regime of Daniel S. O'Brien he served with marked success as lecturer of the council and his election last night was a splendid tribute to his worth as a member. He is an accomplished speaker and a fine executive and his coming into the office of grand knight at this juncture of the council's history will be welcomed by its many members. For several years he has served as treasurer and a member of the board of trustees of the Washington Savings Institution. He is married and lives in Pine Street.

When the election returns were announced, the next grand knight was called upon for a few remarks and, amid great applause, he responded by thanking the members for the high honor bestowed upon him. He promised to continue the good work of the council, so marked this year under the leadership of Daniel and Knight Hart, and asked for the support and co-operation of the membership in making Lowell council prosper and better. His election, like that of the other officers, was made unanimous. The other officers are: John J. Flannery, deputy grand knight; James B. Coughlin, chancellor; Philip J. Green, financial secretary; Patrick J. Sweeney, recording secretary; Frank J. Flannegan, warden; Thomas J. Fitzgerald, treasurer; James J. Bruin, advocate; Richard Costello, inside guard; John J. Lane, outside guard; Thomas A. Ginty, trustee for three years; John E. Hart, delegate to state convention; George F. Briggan, first alternate; Andrew Molloy, second alternate.

quished by Dreo

Mr. Alvin H. Lilley of Centralville, Maine, writes: "I have many ills and troubles can come from constipation. I was always in a constipated condition. My system was clogged with poison. I was tired and weak, and nervous. I could not sleep. When I got up in the morning I would feel tired and have a bad taste in my mouth. My head ached continually. I lost weight and my blood seemed to be bad. My face was flushed and I had dizzy spells with everything went black. I would reel and have to sit down to keep from falling. I had sharp pains in my back that were terrible when I moved. And food didn't seem to digest when it reached my stomach. I would have pains and acid rising from my stomach burned up my insides, made me catch my breath. My sufferings stopped when I started taking Dreo. This marvellous medicine relieved me of my troubles, broke up constipation, put my liver in good shape and gave me new strength. I honestly feel like a new person. I hope that every man and woman will be relieved of their troubles by this wonderful remedy. Its powers are marvellous."

Call today at Green's Drug Store and ask to talk with Mr. Dreo, the expert from the Dreo Laboratories. He will courteously tell you of the merits of this wonderful remedy. Also he will honestly tell you whether or not he thinks Dreo will benefit you. Dreo is sold in Nashua by Nashua Drug Co., 175 Main St.—Adv.

Are You Nervous?

Do you feel on the verge of a breakdown? Does your back ache or do you feel nervous? Listen to what this woman says—

Schenectady, N. Y.—"For many years I have been a user of Dr. Pierce's remedies whenever the occasion warranted it and I have never found them lacking, always obtaining good and beneficial results. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a woman's tonic and nerve is excellent. On two occasions I was wonderfully helped by its use. I had two very severe nervous breakdowns, one in early years and again when I was in the forties, and the 'Favorite Prescription' restored me to health and strength each time.

"Also I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and consider it the best blood medicine and building tonic one can take. It renovates and purifies the whole system and makes you feel as though you had a new lease on life."—Mrs. Amanda Case, 801 Becker St.

itself as "In the swim" and a delegation is now working in conjunction with the general committee to make this affair a success.

The chairman of the planning board, submitted a comprehensive report on affairs contemplated for the coming season. This board recommended, and the recommendations were adopted, that an "old-timers" night be conducted in the near future. Other activities will include a minstrel show and drama, musical comedy and an inter-council tournament. An athletic meet will be held in the spring. Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan, chaplain of the council, gave a fine talk on the meaning and significance of the knighthood and urged the members to support the new officers. He said a mass will be celebrated in St. Peter's church on the morning of Columbus day and hoped for a large attendance. The following committee was appointed to arrange for the observance: Frank J. Flannegan, Albert E. O'Brien, Fred Stowell, Robert R. Thomas, Daniel J. Sullivan, Edward R. Hart, Frank Kelly, Edward F. Saunders, Frank A. Groves and the present lecturer of the council.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Alphonse Veilleux and Miss Dorothy Howard were married Sept. 13 at St. Peter's rectory, the ceremony being performed by Rev. D. J. Heffernan. Mr. David Mack of Pittsfield was best man, while the bridesmaid was Miss Alice Howard, a sister of the bride. After a honeymoon trip to New York and Providence, R. I., the couple will make their home in this city.

Checkland—Bean

Mr. Arthur Checkland and Mrs. Margaret Bean were married Sept. 13 at St. Peter's rectory, the ceremony being performed by Rev. D. J. Heffernan. The bride wore gray tulle, tulle and carried red roses. She was attended by Mrs. J. McKenna, a sister of the groom, who was acting in blue canton crepe and carried red roses. The best man was Mr. J. Farrell, a brother of the bride. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a beaded bag, while the groom's favor to the best man was a gold coin. At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom, 57 French street. After an extended automobile honeymoon trip to Boston, Providence, R. I., and the state of Maine, the couple will make their home in this city.

1923-24 Fall Opening

Why I Am Spending
$1000 to Advertise
This Event.

I am spending this amount in newspaper advertising because by so doing I can sell better clothes for less money than if I did not advertise. Instead of making 20 to 30 garments a week at a profit of $10.00 to $15.00 a garment, as do some of the non-advertising tailors, I will sell five times this amount. The more I sell the greater my buying power, my overhead is less, my growth is faster. I am establishing a clientele and good will that are worth real money. If I spend $1000 for advertising and at the same time save you from $7.50 to $12.00 on a suit of clothes or overcoat and also make a small profit on each garment I sell, is it not good logic to spend the money in that way? If you have any doubt as to my ability to save you money, then do this: Come in and get a sample of woollens. See how well I am making the clothes, then ask any tailor to duplicate in quality and workmanship what I offer you. This test will convince you that it pays to respond to my announcements and it pays me to tell you about my offer.

(Signed) MITCHELL.

Read it—fine print and all. To many it will prove more interesting reading than the leading news articles on the first page of today's Sun. It is a message to men, but is also of interest to women.

By a fortunate deal I have become the owner of more than 3000 yards of fine quality woollens, including imported Bannickburn overcoatings. These were bought from one of the largest woolen houses in New England—a firm that specializes in quality goods such as are featured by the high-priced tailors. At regular prices in unbroken bolts I would have had to pay not less than $10,500 for what I bought. Because they were not full bolts and because I was one of the few tailors in New England that could and would use the quantity offered, I bought this brand new stock of fall woollens at a ridiculously low price. THIS IS MY FIFTEENTH WINTER IN LOWELL and as you know, I make men's clothes only, yet I do want the women, wives, mothers and sweethearts to come in and see what I have to offer. Most women know more about cloth than men do. They will back me up in the assertion that quality is woven into every inch of the warp and filling of every piece. The more you know about woollens, the greater will be your astonishment that I can and will, make a made-to-order suit or overcoat from such materials for as low as $25.00.

Special Blue Serge Offering

MADE BY THE WOOD WORSTED MILL OF LAWRENCE, MASS.

With absolute knowledge of the quality of this Blue Serge, knowing what I paid for it, knowing what I sold it to you for two weeks ago, yes, and six years hence, I would know I must have pleased you, even if constant demand and duplicate orders didn't prove it to my entire satisfaction.

My object is to interest my customers in the BLUE SERGE SUIT. I am selling this fall opening week for $27.50. I bought two weeks ago 27 pieces for this store at 20 per cent. less than I paid for it eight months ago—it is even a better blue, 1 1/2 ounces heavier in weight. This reduction sounds small, but when you buy in large quantity it amounts to real money. I don't hesitate to say that not a man in Lowell who has done any shopping this season, even looking in windows, will guess the price to be $27.50 after he sees it made and on your back. I don't mind telling you that this serge was never intended for popular-priced suitings, and it is no secret that there is no concern in Lowell or New England which can sell it at anywhere near my price—$27.50.

I guarantee to put every cent where it counts the most—into the garment itself. No ornamental rugs, no oil paintings, and no haughty floorwalkers. I carry no charge accounts and don't have to make up any credit losses. I've cut my expense in the bone and save you $10.00 to $15.00 on a suit or overcoat.

FALL OPENING BLUE SERGE

Made by the Wood Worsted Mill of Lawrence, Mass. 14 ounces in weight. If it fades I'll give you a new suit and you keep the old one. A $40.00 value made to your order, any style $27.50 you want, for has set the country agog, will be demonstrated by this capable couple. This will be the first time that the dance has been shown in Lowell aside from the Valentino exhibition here. With this number Bray and Sheerin recently won the New England dancing championship event at Hartford, Conn. It is expected to take Lowell by storm. Minor & Boyle will provide the orchestration.

POLICE FIND 19 BARRELS OF BEER

In consequence of a visit to the Palmouth luncheon at 26 Williams street last night, Sergeant Winn and Officers William Liston, Alfred Killey, Patrick Bagley, Samuel McElroy and John Leahy confiscated 19 barrels of alleged real beer, said to have been transported from Lawrence. The goods are reported to sell at $12 a barrel, wholesale.

When the officers entered the premises, alleged to be owned by Thomas A. Grady, they found 19 men assembled there. Considerable attention was attracted when a large truck, transported the seizure to the police station. The place is conducted under a common victualler's license.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press.)—Fourteen indictments charging William B. Henham, president and Dwight Harrison, secretary and treasurer of the H. L. Dollings company of Ohio with obtaining money under false pretence and with aiding and abetting in obtaining money under false pretence were returned by the Preble county grand jury yesterday at Eaton, Ohio, according to announcement today by Attorney General C. C. Crabbe.

Mr. Harrison was arrested at his home here last night by Sheriff C. R. Nehrlay of Preble county and today was being held in the Preble county jail at Eaton. Mr. Henham has not yet been arrested. He is said to be out of the state.

BUT WHY WORRY ABOUT NEXT YEAR

Although this is a comparatively "soft" year for the election commission, inasmuch as only two elections are on the calendar, next year, 1924, will be a record-breaker and will keep the members of the board on the jump from January 1 to December.

Next year will bring five elections—national or presidential primaries in April and in the fall, city and state primaries and city and state and national elections. In addition, the election commission as the listing board must list all polls and redistrict the city into wards.

This redistricting is compulsory under the law which was passed by the legislature in its last session, to be conducted in 1924 and to become operative in 1925 and to be followed by other redistrictings every ten years.

As yet the election commission has not thought a great deal of the redistricting work, but just as soon as this winter's city elections are out of the way, preliminary plans will be formulated.

A new gunpowder has been invented which, not only is smokeless, but also flashless and waterproof.

CANNOT USE NAVY TO ENFORCE PROHIBITION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Except in an emergency, rendering civil process of enforcement impotent, which was held not to exist, the navy cannot be used in enforcing prohibition without the express authorization of congress, Attorney General Daugherty has ruled in an opinion submitted to President Coolidge.

The opinion answers in the negative both questions submitted by the late President Harding in asking for a ruling.

Although dealing specifically only half of the gathering, Mr. Burke with the navy, the opinion was regarded as applicable to the army as well. Because of its negative nature, no resulting change was expected in the enforcement situation.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MR JOSEPH BURKE

A farewell party was tendered Mr. Joseph Burke by a group of friends, at the home of Thomas Neylon, 939 Central street, last night. Mr. Burke will sail for Ireland on September 18. At the party, which came as a genuine surprise to the unsuspecting guest, a handsome purse was presented, the presentation speech being made by William McNamara on behalf of the group.

(thanked his friends for their kind thought of him. During the evening, games were played and a general program of entertainment enjoyed. Mr. Burke leaves Lowell on September 18, for County Clare, Ireland.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The government asked the supreme court today to reverse the decision of the first circuit court of appeals directing the release of Roland H. Pothier, who had been held in connection with the death of Major Alexander P. Cronkhite at Camp Lewis, Wash., in 1918.

The United States has spent more on new highways in the last 25 years than the total capital invested in railroads.

ANNEXATION OF FIUME

Mussolini to Announce Withdrawal of Italian Troops From Porto Barros

PARIS, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) When Premier Mussolini declares the annexation of Fiume to Italy, he will announce the withdrawal of the Italian troops from Porto Barros, the adjoining harbor. It is learned here from an authoritative quarter. He will thus give up any claim to that port, to Suak and to the delta there, which will be left to Jugoslavia.

London Nurses Ordered to Allow Their Hair to Grow—Stores Also Act

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Bobbed hair, which is rapidly passing out here, is getting a few kicks to help it along its way. The latest comes from Manchester hospital, where all nurses have been ordered to allow their hair to grow. In the future, no young lady with short locks will be allowed to look after the patients.

Many London restaurants and department stores have issued notices to the same effect.

TRADITION OF ANCIENT CHINA BROKEN

WELLESLEY, Sept. 14.—Once more tradition of ancient China was broken when a smiling little girl slipped quietly into Wellesley and rented a half bedroom in a small boarding house on a side street. The girl was Miss Grace Li, daughter of Li Yuan-Kung, president of the Great Eastern republic. In direct contradiction of the immemorial custom of insulating the daughters of the rulers of China with troops of attendants, Miss Li arrived with but one companion, Miss Harriet Chou, herself only 21 years old.

The girls are entered at Wellesley college to take two-year courses in political economy, because they want to. Asked if her father had sent her, Miss Li tossed her head, smiled, and said: "I came to Wellesley because I felt like it. No one tells me what to do."

After saying that America had lived up to her expectations and that she believed in women's suffrage although admitting that Chinese femininity was hardly advanced enough to use the ballot yet, and that her people were tired of Americans, she was asked whether she was married.

"Of course not," she replied. "I've never seen the man I'd want to marry." Chinese are no longer betrothed as infants, she declared with emphasis. "That was so once but not now among the educated classes. We do as we want to. We are not bossed nowadays."

CHELMSFORD GRANGE HOLDS ANNUAL FAIR

The Chelmsford Centre town hall was the scene of a large gathering yesterday afternoon and evening, the occasion being the annual fair under the auspices of the Chelmsford Grange. Hundreds of people attended the fair and incidentally spent money freely at the various sales tables. The affair was one of the most successful of its kind in a long time and the committee in charge was warmly congratulated for the manner in which the event was conducted.

The lobby and lower and upper halls of the building were occupied and these three places were the scene of considerable activity. In the lobby there were ice cream, tonic and chip tables, while in the upper hall were sales tables of all varieties and those in charge reported a thriving business. The lower hall was taken up with a fine exhibition of poultry.

Between the hours of 6.30 and 7.30 a bountiful supper was served in the hall under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis A. Allen. At 8.30 o'clock the following program was given in the upper town hall:

Spanish dance, Doris Clark; "Jingle Bells," Kathleen Brooks, the dance, Dorothy Mahan; waltz clock, Dorothy Sheeler; ball box dance, Lawrence

Judge; "The Policeman and the Flapper," Barrett sisters. All the little folks were pupils of Miss Doris D. Conley of Lowell and were a taking feature. Mrs. Nettie Roberts of Lowell contributed two solos and two pretty dances were given by the little Misses Bernadette and Madeline Finnegan. Hon. John Jacob Rogers was present and gave a short address.

The general arrangements of the affair were under the direction of the following officers of the Grange: Mrs. Eva Perley, W. Kimball, master; Mrs. E. McMaster, lecturer. The tables were in charge of the following committees: Poultry exhibit, Perley, W. Kimball; chairman; Abbot Russell, Edwin Warren, Allen Adams, Norman Johnson, vegetables, William E. Bell, fruit, Everett and Edwin Whitcomb; flowers, Mrs. Marion Lupton, Mrs. Bessie Popham, canned goods, Mrs. Perry Whitcomb, Mrs. Carrie Hartman, Mrs. Evelyn Russell; grab table, Mrs. Jennie Kneeland, Mrs. Ernest DeKaly, household table, Mrs. Hazel Belleville, Mrs. Della Waite; donation table, Frank E. McMaster, fancy work, Mrs. E. E. Spaulding, chairman; Mrs. Sadie Christie, Mrs. Esther Putnam, Mrs. Irene Hazeltine, Mrs. Wallace Rogers, Mrs. George Pindar, Mrs. Julia Knowlton, Mrs. Clara Bean, apron table, Mrs. Georgia Dutton, chairman; Mrs. Katherine Smith, Mrs. Abbie Ford, Mrs. V. L. Morrill; white elephant table, Mrs. Jennie Erickson, Mrs. Mary Wrigley; food table, Mrs. Lena Taylor, Mrs. Florence Lullar, Mrs. A. Tucker, candy, Mrs. Elsie Adams, Mrs. May Filer, ice cream and tenses, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Fletcher.

RUSSIAN TREASURES ARE SOLD CHEAP

LONDON, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press.)—The vast collections of jewels and art treasures of the Romanoff family gradually are finding their way to the many auction rooms of London and Paris. They have come in such abundance during the last two years that they cease to excite curiosity or to bring more than the normal price for such articles.

Recently the most remarkable collection of 412 old French snuff boxes in existence, once the property of the Romanoff family, was sold in London for about $50,000, considered a low price. One of the specimens, a gold oval Louis XV. box, beautifully chased, with a miniature of Frederick II. in the lid and a small watch in the bottom, said to have been presented to Voltaire by Frederick II., brought $5000.

EMPRESS' EFFECTS SELL FOR $10,000

LONDON, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press.)—Members of England's oldest and highest families stood with almost tearful eyes when the once priceless effects of the late Empress Eugenie of France were sold under the hammer at ridiculously small prices, but still beyond their impoverished purses. The goods sold were principally her late majesty's dresses, slippers, gowns, lace and furs.

Most of the stuff was bought by dealers, although some of the former empress's servants and followers were able to buy small articles.

The hundred and sixty lots brought about $10,000, which would hardly have paid for one of the court gowns worn at the royal festivities in the days of splendor.

A lot of rare Alencon lace brought $1115 and a fur stole $525. A beautiful rug into which was woven the royal cipher with the arms of Spain and France, given to the empress on her wedding day by the carpet makers of Seville, was bought by a Frenchman and will be presented to a French museum. It is supposed to have been on this rug that the Emperor Napoleon III. and Empress Eugenie knelt when they received the blessing after their marriage.

Your Health
by Dr. C.C. Robinson

Do you eat to live or live to eat? Henry Ward Beecher once said that many people were digging their graves with their teeth. This is another way of saying that too many people bite off more than they can properly chew. That's where the weight trouble begins.

If your baby begins life weighing eight pounds, the average healthy gain should be about four ounces a week. At one year the baby should weigh 24 or 25 pounds. Through childhood, the normal gain depends on proper food, freedom from disease, environment, and natural adaptation to the type one represents, heavy, athletic or slender.

Five Pounds an Inch

At the age of 15, an average boy, five feet in height, should weigh about 105 pounds; a girl about the same or slightly more. At the age of 30, when full maturity is reached in most cases, the gain in weight should cease. At this time, a man five feet nine inches in height should weigh about 160 pounds; a woman five feet five inches, the ideal stature, about 135 pounds. These weights are without clothing. For each additional inch in height you are allowed about five pounds increase in weight.

It is quite generally recognized by physicians that many people inherit certain tendencies in stature and weight. But you can regulate your weight, in spite of inheritances, by systematic exercise and careful eating. You must do it the same way you do your work. It must be done every day and all the time. "Rise from the table with an appetite and you will never sit down without one."

A Health Barometer

Do not allow yourself to accumulate a lot of useless fat cells. Prevention, in this case, is worth more than a pound of cure. Weight is a kind of health barometer, and a reliable one at that. If you are 10 pounds over weight at 35, don't worry or attempt any reducing, except under a physician's care. Any attempt at rapid reduction by steam baths, massage, or drugs, is dangerous. You, too, may fade away.

The great, vital issue in this food and weight business is how to convey to the millions of people who sadly need it, the real knowledge which they should possess for a healthful and sufficient daily dietary. I thoroughly believe that this should be furnished them in some clearly tabulated or charted form by state and local health boards, and posted conspicuously in all food shops. These charts should show the relative energy and weight values, together with the cost of the foods which are health giving, and can commonly be used to the best advantage in the ordinary family.

TO RESUME DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS ON Fiume

BEIGRADE, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) The Italian charge d'affaires here informed the Jugoslav government last evening of Premier Mussolini's desire that direct negotiations between Rome and Belgrade regarding Fiume be resumed.

No decision has yet been reached here, but the resumption of negotiations on a fresh basis is considered possible.

BEVERLY POLICE CHIEF INDICTED

LAWRENCE, Sept. 14.—Chief of Police John E. Hayes of Beverly was indicted by the grand jury yesterday afternoon for an assault with a dangerous weapon. He is accused of having shot Miss Evelyn Spinney and John H. Winston, both of Lynn, when he attempted to stop an automobile in which they were riding in Beverly early on the morning of June 10.

"Dr. King, I Want Teeth I Can Eat With"

A man came into this office some time ago and made the above statement. He said he had two sets of teeth and could not eat with either of them. I made him a set and he came into the office later and said they were the only ones he could keep in his mouth while eating. In fact he could chew peanuts and eat apples without the least trouble.

The reason for this is my particular method of taking impressions study of the shape and relation of the jaws and correct articulation of the teeth.

Now, I can make you a set of teeth just as good as his. If your plate drops or rocks, come in, for I make a specialty of difficult cases and will examine your mouth and give you advice free of charge.

BROCKTON COUPLE KILLED ON R. R. CROSSING

CHARLESTOWN, N. H., Sept. 14.—Joseph E. Lepage of Brockton, Mass., and his wife, formerly Mrs. Addie Curtis, also of Brockton, were instantly killed yesterday when their automobile was struck at Searles crossing, near here by the south-bound White Mountain express on the Boston & Maine railroad. The car and its occupants were thrown more than 40 feet by the impact of the train, and the two bodies were almost cut to pieces.

According to the train crew, the automobile had almost cleared the crossing but the rear wheel was caught by the locomotive. The train was brought to a stop before the car was crushed. The automobile was traveling south toward Bellevue Falls on the main highway from Charlestown. Police and members of the train crew were unable to explain Lepage's attempt to cross ahead of the train, as the road parallels the railway line for some distance on a lower level at that point and the train must have been clearly visible. The train was 20 minutes late and making up time when the collision occurred.

Were on Auto Trip to Maine
BROCKTON, Sept. 14.—Joseph E. Lepage and his wife, resident of this city, who were killed in a railroad crossing accident near Charlestown, N. H., yesterday, left on Monday, announcing that they intended to take an automobile trip to Maine.

Lepage, whose parents live in Berlin, N. H., came here a year ago as a helper at the Brockton fair. On July 14 he married Mrs. Addie Curtis, who had been granted a divorce from her first husband last year. They resided at the home of Mrs. Lepage's parents here.

Mrs. Lepage is survived by two daughters, Eleanor, who is in Boston, and Thelma, who resides at Lewiston, Me.

BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE MEETING

Business of a routine nature was transacted yesterday afternoon by the board of public service.

A contract to furnish and install new guard rail for the Moody street bridge over the river was awarded to Frank A. Donnelly, whose bid submitted two or three weeks ago was $480.

The board received a petition from the water works for shorter hours and increased pay, but after discussing it gave it leave to withdraw.

The matter of giving the Lowell Electric Light Corp. the right to dig up paving at Central and Prescott streets was postponed on request of a representative of the company, who

VIEW PROPOSED SITES FOR NEW SCHOOL

Representatives of the city council and school committee looked over several suggested sites for a new school in the South End district late yesterday afternoon. Those who made the trip were Dr. Emma B. Y. Slaughter, James H. Riley, James J. Bruin, and Thomas B. Delaney of the school board and Councilors Frederick A. Sadlier and Maurice J. Lambert. It was the unanimous expression that whenever a new school is built in the section in question it shall be in the neighborhood of the present Edison structure. Several sites examined will be reported back to the council by Councilor Sadlier, chairman of the special committee representing that body.

WAITING ROOM QUESTION STILL IN THE AIR

The matter of a street railway waiting room is as much a matter of conjecture as ever, the conference of city councilors and representatives of the Eastern Massachusetts Co. yesterday afternoon resulting in no progress. The idea of obtaining the ground floor of the present Greater-City building was punctuated when Mr. Maurice B. McCormick reported it would be impossible to rent the ground floor without taking over the entire building. After some discussion the entire matter was left open for further negotiations.

explained that the petition was forced in order that additional power may be supplied downtown business houses and enterprises. The board did not resolve its action of a previous meeting on the matter, but agreed to take it under advisement until after a view. A grievance between two employees of the city blacksmith shop involving Joseph Davidson and John Hannaford was aired before the board which finally took it under consideration, with the admonition to both men that they get along together a little better in the future.

Engineer John A. Stevens will be asked to meet with the board next week for a discussion of the specifications and plans for the installation of two boilers at the pumping station in West Sixth street.

BRIDE ACCIDENTALLY KILLS HERSELF

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Margaret Cohen, wife of Dr. Ira Cohen, was found dead yesterday from a bullet wound. The medical examiner said she killed herself accidentally while looking for a burglar.

Mrs. Cohen, who was a bride of three months, was the daughter of Dr. Alfred Meyer, noted tuberculosis specialist.

COOLIDGE CONGRATULATES PINCHOT
HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 14.—A message of congratulation from President Coolidge to Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania upon the settlement of the anthracite coal controversy here last week was made public at the executive offices here last night. With it was a brief statement by the governor explaining that the telegram was given out upon receipt of word from the president's secretary, C. Bascom Flannery, that Mr. Coolidge expected Mr. Pinchot to make it public.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—A huge belt of manganese, about 20 feet wide and four miles long, has been found at Kekewort, near the West Rand, in South Africa. The belt is already being exploited by two farmers who own part of the land through which it runs. It is said to be of almost pure manganese, and is one of the most important mineral finds recorded in the dark continent.

The Wolschendorfs are well known residents of East Bridgewater. Mr. Wolschendorf is the owner of Osceola Place, a pleasure resort situated on Tobruk pond in East Bridgewater and also conducts a store and a lodging house there.

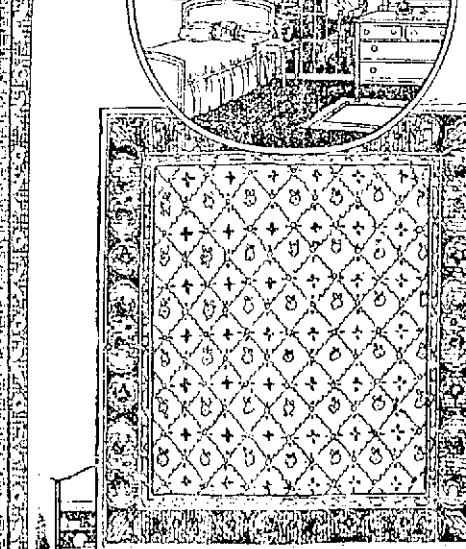

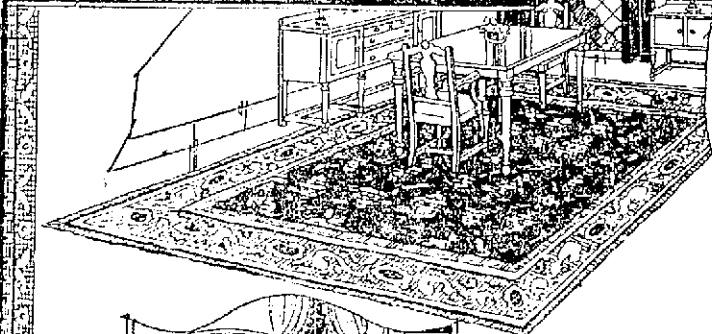

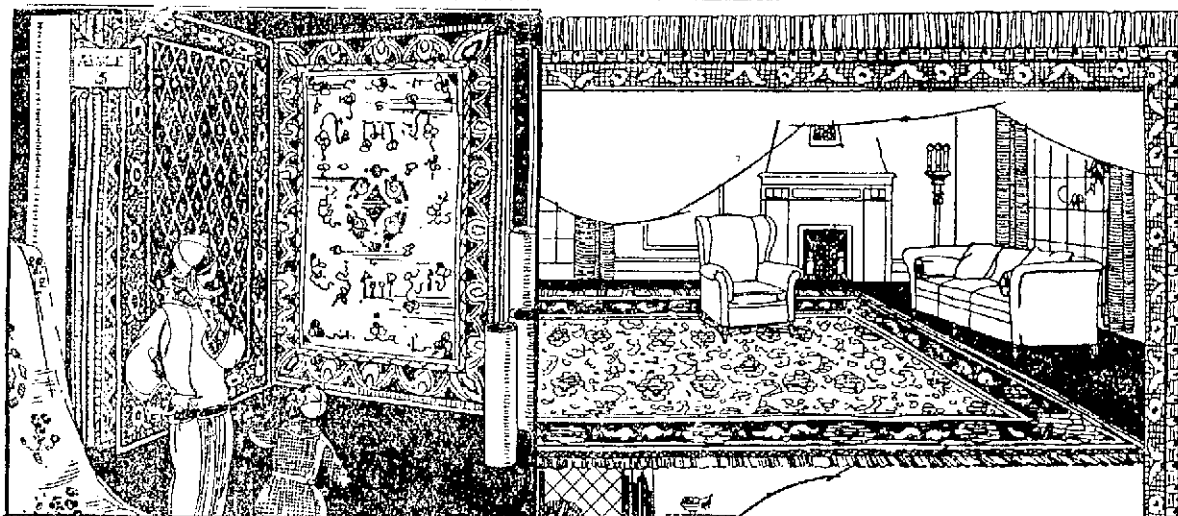

LOCAL RESUME OF DRESS SUITCASE MYSTERY

The events leading up to the announcement of the district attorney today as to the believed identity of the woman in the mystery have for the past 10 days been centered in or near Lowell. State police have made this city their headquarters in practically all of the investigation work which followed the discovery of the dismembered body in two suitcases on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 1 and 2.
The first suitcase was found on Saturday morning by 12-year-old Joseph Davis of East Providence, R. I., who with his father and two brothers had stopped their automobile for luncheon at a point about one-quarter of a mile below Tyngsboro bridge on the boulevard side. This suitcase contained the torso and arms.
The second suitcase, containing the legs, was found on Sunday floating in the water on the same side of the stream at a point not far from where the first was found.

Tyngsboro police at once began to drag the river for the head of the woman. The district attorney's office extended the scope of search and sent John D. Robinson of Medford, a professional diver, to the scene. For eight days the diver walked the river bottom, beginning at the bridge and working downstream on both sides of the river as far as Mud Brook, so-called. Although several articles of clothing and pieces of cloth were found in the water and along the banks none developed into clues. Gradually the local aspect of the case faded out and disappeared almost entirely two days ago when the operations of the diver ceased on order of Dist. Atty. Reading. More and more the belief grew that the head of the woman was not in the river, but had been disposed of before the suitcases were thrown into the water at Tyngsboro.

What was considered the most important clue at Tyngsboro was the crash of a fast traveling motor car into the guard rail of the bridge late in the night just before the day when the first suitcase was found. That the suitcases had been carried to that point in this machine was the belief, although it was driven away before any clue as to its identity could be established.

AMERICAN GIRL LEADS

For All-around World-wide
Popularity and Appeal,
Says Miss Cohen

BY MARIAN HALE
N.E.A. Service Writer
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The only type of girls who appeals to people of all countries with equal force is the American.

MISS ELSIE COHEN

Elsie Cohen, production manager of the only motion picture studio in Holland, says so.

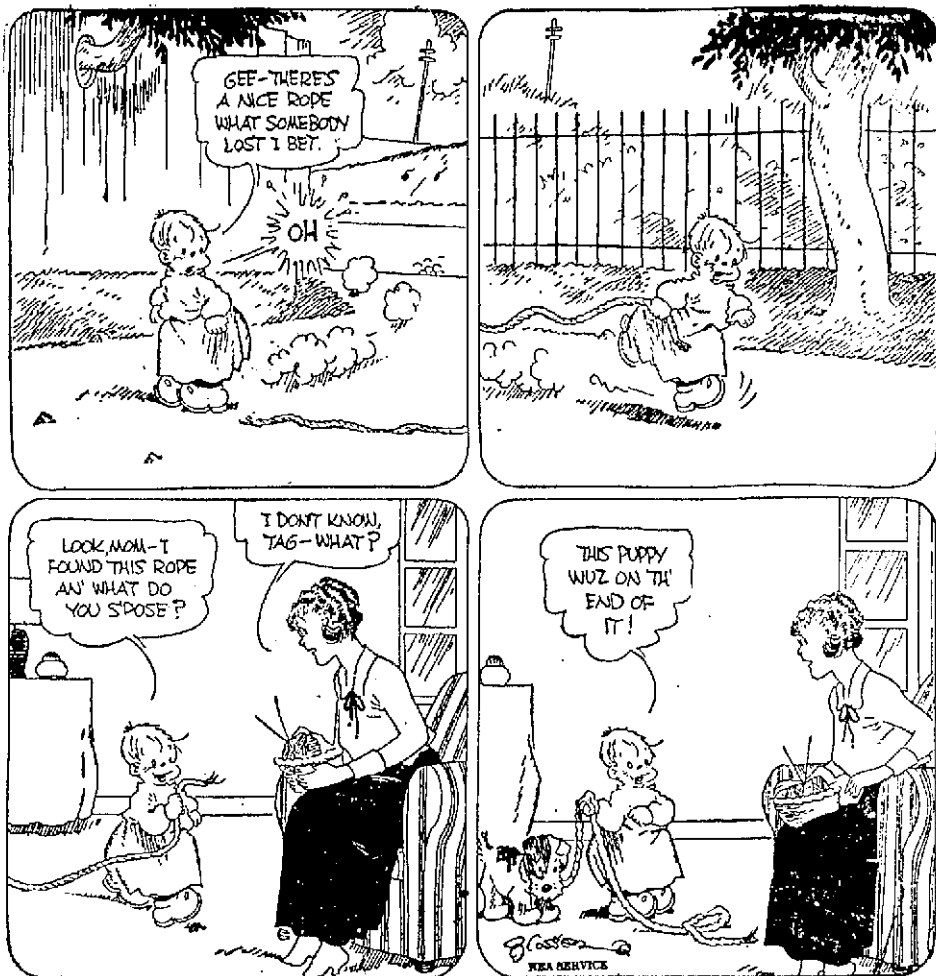

"And no matter where you take your pictures, you have to rely upon the

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

American girl to put them over," she states.

"In Holland, for instance," she goes on, "we have the most picturesque scenery and excellent light and climate for pictures. But unless we have an American girl for the heroine, our pictures are only local in their appeal."

"I don't mean, of course, that Holland girls are not beautiful and that they are not appreciated in their native land for some of them are very lovely. But they are not the type that appeals to the cosmopolitan taste. The American, on the contrary, is just as much adored in Singapore as she is in Cincinnati."

Two Reasons

Miss Cohen believes that there are two reasons for this. First, that the American girl is a composite type with the best of all nations in her, and, second, because she knows so well how to dress.

"The American girl can express youth in her clothes as no other girl in the world can," she continued. "The English girl, naturally tall and athletic looking, always manages to look older and more angular than she really is in her pictures. The French girl is bound to look artificial."

"The Italian woman's naturally lovely features become too heavy under the camera. But the American girl looks on the screen just as she does on the golf links or at the matinee."

"Occasionally a foreign actress has a worldwide popularity, but she is the exception that proves the rule."

Pioneer in Movies

Miss Cohen makes trips in America twice a year to look over our beauty market and our plays, and to take back to Holland such actresses and films as she finds most suited to her purposes.

She is one of the women pioneers in the executive department of motion pictures. She sees a great future for women there.

"At the present time women do not realize the possibilities there are in the world behind the scenes," she concludes. "They seem to think the opportunities all lie in actually appearing on the screen. However, in time, I think the advantages will be on the other side, and I believe women should come in for their share of them."

Federal coal commission reports to President Coolidge that operation of coal industry is possible to insure dependable supply of fuel to the public, adequate wages to the miners and reasonable return to the operators.

LEAGUE HAS GIVEN PROOF OF ITS POWER

GENEVA, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) China came out strongly in support of the League of Nations yesterday. Tching-tschang, minister to France, in an address before the assembly declared the league had given ample proof of its ability to secure the peace of the world and to help the triumph of justice.

This has been accomplished, he declared, because the basis of the league was recognition of the equality of peoples without distinction of race, color or religion. China was convinced that the time would soon come when all the nations of the earth would be represented in the league.

Tching-tschang moved the adoption of the report of the council on the work of last year, because, he said, it demonstrated that the sentiments of fraternity and co-operation were surging in the front throughout the world. M. Stankauskas of Lithuania, reviewing his country and Poland, made the point that, if the League of Nations did not yet occupy in the political world that place which its promoters expected, it was chiefly because the competency of the league was too limited and also because of what he termed the faulty method employed by the council in solution of differences between nations.

This Little World

By GEORGE BRITT

N.E.A. Service Writer

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Under one of the signs of the three golden balls on N. Clark street there trades an "uncle" who exhibits all the traditional personal earmarks of his calling—polishing gleaming horizontal features with his hands. "Uncle" wears a diamond ring which could be described only as a "diamond".

The visitor will be amazed, however, at the apparent modesty which causes the diamond set to be turned inside, and shows only a gold band on the back of the hand. An explanation is requested.

"I take this way," answers "uncle," waving his extended palm from side to side. "You can't see my diamond if I don't turn him around, can you?"

The world's big news around the labor day weekend was not the Japanese earthquake disaster, and for another two weeks. A Chicagoan just returned from an automobile trip to Washington, D. C., and received his first information about the tragedy.

To get away from routine, he had avoided all newspapers. His only news came from conversations with other tourists. There had been no talk about the Denzies-Fippo fight, none about Greece and Italy. One casual acquaintance told our traveler that some automobile driver had been killed, but forgot his name. Tourist talk was con-lined to the subjects of roads, tire troubles and traffic-cops.

By their lunches, ye shall know them. A company superintendent here uses that test to sort out his workmen for promotion to foremen. If a man brings his lunch in his pocket, just a pair of sandwiches and an apple, he won't do. He hasn't the energy. But if a workman brings down a big tin bucket, full of food, he is a likely prospect. His machinery is developing power.

One of the best sights in Chicago is a jackknife bridge raised to let a boat pass. Picture the street ahead standing upright for 100 feet or more in the air.

Paris is no more a city of bridges than Chicago. In compensation for their pretentiousness, however, Chicago endures the inconvenience of traffic interruptions whenever the bridges open. More than a dozen bridges are direct gateways to the Loop on the north and west, and each can be relied on to give a "snack" (snip) to business 20 or 30 times a day.

If you ever grieved over the raucous voices of the beauties who demonstrate fountain pens, hunkie removers and cleaning fluids in drug store windows, let this bring comfort. Chicago, just passed through an epidemic of demonstrations, with an alluring salsigal at work behind the class at every corner. A horn projecting from the window emitted vocal explanation, but the tone was a grinning back—reconcilable with the girl's smiling lips. On the word of a reputable Loop druggist you may take it now that the voice is that of a phonograph and the demonstrator merely moves her lips silently to aid the illusion.

THE SOLDIERS' BONUS STATUS

The Washington representative of the Boston Globe has learned that President Coolidge will before very long be urged by supporters of the soldiers' adjusted compensation bill to favor that measure in the coming congress. On the ground that the treasury of the United States was in no position to permit the expenditure necessary for a bonus for the World War veterans, the late President Harding took a very strong stand against the bill, as is well known. His veto killed half-hearted action in the last session of congress.

In his speeches in various parts of the country during the past year or two, President Coolidge has not disavowed the soldiers' bonus measure so far as known. He has stated, however, that the first duty of the country is to provide adequately for the soldiers and sailors who were disabled, and already hundreds of millions of dollars have been expended for this purpose and it seems likely to grow greater during the coming years.

Many national legislators now believe that the next congress will put through some kind of a real bonus bill and, if necessary, pass it over a presidential veto. Senator Smoot of Utah wants to have a national sales tax on the statute books to pay for the desired bonus, but even if that action isn't taken, the Utah senator believes a bonus is coming as sure as fate. Congressman Rogers has predicted that congress will pass a bonus bill in the short session opening in December. Senator Walsh is a strong advocate of the bonus and will favor it with all his eloquence.

It is understood that the World War soldiers seeking the passage of an adequate bonus measure are in the majority against the sales tax suggestion advanced by Senator Smoot and other national colonists. They will be prepared to offer important suggestions when the time comes, of course, and in the meantime they are waiting for some statement from the new president, who has thus far kept very mum about soldiers' bonuses of the national brand and probably will not take a stand on the question until it comes before him for his official sanction.

A BRAVE GOVERNOR

As a result of the activities of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma that state has been placed under martial law by the governor; and evidence has been brought out to show that the Klan has been responsible for a number of floggings administered to citizens, in addition to other offenses indicating that the members of the Klan have been taking the law into their own hands.

Governor Walton now charges that the jury commissioners, the sheriff and the police commissioner have been acting in collusion with the Klan and under its control. He declares that these officers are in the hands of a secret organization and that the question is now the survival of an inviolable government or the permanence of legal and visible government. The governor takes a determined stand against the interference with the administration of the law by the secret organization and declares that he will clean up the situation if he has to stand alone and let them shoot at him. That is the only proper stand for the governor to take in dealing with such a situation. He seems to be a man of grit who cannot be intimidated in the discharge of his duty by any power in the state visible or invisible.

A PAST CIVILIZATION

Down in Yucatan, southern Mexico, an army of Indians under the direction of scientists are digging up the palaces and temples of the ancient civilization of the Maya people. They lived more than 2,000 years ago and were sufficiently advanced to produce a race of artists.

The Indians have several years of digging ahead of them. Discoveries fascinating, possibly sensational, will be made. You'll read a lot about this digging job in the newspapers between now and 1926.

Chichen Itza, chief city of the Mayans, was as large as Chicago is today. Thousands of years from now, future scientists may be digging out of mud and sand the remains of Chichen.

Over in England, Queen Mary buys her famous dolls' house. It's only eight feet high. But the greatest English architect designed it. English artists painted tiny pictures to hang on its walls. Garlands and other writers wrote miniature books for its library.

This doll's house is to be passed on to future generations as a perfect record of a fine English home in 1923. It has modern plumbing, electrical fixtures, a garage housing two autos perfect to the last detail—even a wire telephone with a bell in a small bottle.

No matter what may be dug up in the Maya ruins of Yucatan, it will seem crude alongside the dolls' house of modern times. A lot of this, anyway, in 2,000 years. And after another thousand years the dolls' house of Queen Mary will seem as crude as Mr. Jones' house seems today.

Man is steadily improving himself toward an unknown but definite goal. Or maybe man is merely improving his equipment rather than his soul itself.—N.E.A.

IMPORTED BRICKS

A brick works, once a hot and scorching place, is now as cool as the place where it is used in building. So something is radically wrong with our "system" when three million bricks a month are imported into New York city from foreign countries. That is what has been happening this year.

The alleged "shortage of bricks" is a poor excuse. If we can't even make our own bricks, the outlook for American industry is rather gloomy.

SEEN AND HEARD

A bottle in the auto is worse than two in the road.

Patent leather hair seems to make the brains underneath skid.

When we learn how happy our country is we will tell you how happy this country should be.

Joe Burns says this trouble with money is not that we try to think and do big things on small mental capital.

A Thought

On the sands of life narrow trails lead heavily, and leave a print that cannot wash away.—H. Neale.

Choose Your Idiot

It was his first visit to the city. As he stood on the pavement shaking his sides with laughter, he was asked, "What's the fun?" "Fun? Can't you see it? Just look how that fellow is talking! He's a real idiot!" "Why, the idiot won't have a drop left when he gets home!"

The Wonderful Baby

"My dear," said a young wife to her husband, "the baby has been trying to talk again. I think it must have been politics. He started very calmly, but in a few minutes he was as angry and red in face as a coal fire. It is wonderful how he takes after you!"—Chicago News.

Coming-Out Dress

A countessman visiting London was invited to a "coming-out" dance. During the evening he was introduced to a young woman whose evening dress was notable for its extreme economy of material. "Oh," observed the countessman, "I see you are wearing your coming-out dress."

Two "Whites"

A certain Englishwoman, having had a few hot words with her husband, had occasion a few hours later to send her servant to get some fish for dinner. "Just," she said, "go to town as soon as you can and get me a plaice." "Indeed, I will, madam," said the maid, "and may as well get one for myself, for I can't put up with the master any more than you can!"

Eloquent Prosecutor

In one of the morning sessions there was a district attorney who is a native orator, but considerably lacking in education. While prosecuting a case at one time he finished up his argument in flowery style, and then, leaning across the rail he made this plea: "All I acts of you gentlemen of the jury, now that you are about to retire, is to make out justice as she deserves to be met!"

We Can Use It

James R. Mansfield, city clerk of Northampton, picked up a $20 bill in front of a theatre and thought it must have been dropped by one of the theatre party which had just left a big auto. He hurried into the lobby of the theatre and gave the bill to a woman in the lobby who thought her husband might have dropped it. The next day Mr. Mansfield got a letter from the president of a local writing paper company, saying that no member of his family lost the money and returning the $20 bill.

Just Like the Hired Man

His little play on the farm began to do the professor good. His method of showing this was to unwork various bits of scientific information. Such, for instance, as the following: "In certain remote regions there is a plant known as the travelling plant. This plant has roots formed of knots. By means of these knots it gradually advances about an inch from the place where it was raised." "That's my of my hired man doing on an errand," promptly declared old Farmer Whiffletree.

Sign Detained Him

A man was to have walked to miles from his home to an adjoining town. When he reached his destination he was greeted with great astonishment by his friends who lived there. "You walked all the way?" one of them exclaimed. "I did," replied the old man. "How did you get along?" was the next question. "Oh, first class," replied the professor, "that is, I did not come to a sign 'Slow down to 15 miles an hour.' That kept me back a bit."

LOWELL WOMAN MISSING SINCE LAST TUESDAY

Mrs. Mary Adams, wife of William H. Adams of 516 Merrimack street, has been missing from her home since Tuesday afternoon and the police have been asked to assist in locating her. She is described as being 32 years old, five feet, four inches in height, weighs 90 to 95 pounds, has light brown hair, light skin and blue eyes. She has been seen since a dress of blue crepe de chine, low black shoes, black silk stockings, tan-colored sweater and salmon-colored hat. She was formerly Miss Mary Riley.

Members of St. John's Ladies' auxiliary of North Chelmsford will hold a special meeting in St. John's hall this evening. In the early part of the evening a brief business session will be held and later a social time will be enjoyed. Entertainment numbers will be given and refreshments served.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

John J. Giblin, director of the high school regiment band, is optimistic over the outfit's establishing an enviable record in school musical circles this year. The band, composed of 35 pieces, will make its first appearance of the season at the Souza concert next Monday afternoon. The boys will play one selection during the afternoon program. Since the invitation to participate in the concert was accepted some time ago, the director has assembled the boys at various times and rehearsed the number to be presented at the concert. Each of the instrumentalists knows his part to perfection and Souza had better look to his laurels when they begin to harmonize.

Frank E. Batchelder of 43 Gates street is a good loser. In the recent fight for the position of deputy sheriff in Middlesex county, an appointment later made by Elmer J. Larchelle, Mr. Batchelder was a candidate, although few people knew of the fact. When Mr. Larchelle got the appointment he was surprised to receive a communication from Mr. Batchelder congratulating him on his success. "I would surely have won out," said Mr. Batchelder, "if my opponent had been anyone but you."

Automobiles should exercise care in securing spare tires for their machines, says Capt. David Petrie of the police department. Lately, several complaints have reached the captain's office of tire thefts and each instance the cause was traced to carelessness on the part of the owner. Spare tires should be fastened to the rim or other convenient place on the car and locked. Safety is thus insured.

I refused a start towards a fur coat yesterday. While crossing from the Massachusetts to the Boat Mills along the railroad spur that flanks the canal a full-grown skunk disputed the right of way with me. result, while not disastrous as it might have been, was a clean-cut victory for the skunk. Despite the fact that I outweighed him many pounds to one and feel sure I have a greater mental dexterity, I permitted him to have his way. There's something of a feeling of gladness comes to you when you let a little fellow have his own way once in a while, you know. You have a greater recognition of your prowess. What could be more degrading than a big heavyweight kicking a poor lightweight, defenseless skunk around? I couldn't descend to such tactics and besides years ago at school I took some sort of a pledge the S.P.C.A. sent around to the effect I would use forbearance with dumb quadrupeds. I have forgotten the wording but recall the vow in just the nick of time.

SOCCER GAMES TOMORROW

Lowell soccer football fans will be treated to plenty of this sport tomorrow afternoon when two games will be played at Hunting park. The newly organized Lowell Olympic F.C. will play the fast Arlington mills team of Lawrence in a Merrimack Valley league contest at 2:30, and two fast Portuguese teams will engage in a preliminary game, starting at 2 o'clock. The Olympics have signed several new players of promise and will make the Arlingtonians travel some to land the verdict.

Scientists generally agree that the greatest feature in the evolution of human life was the discovery of the use of fire.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

SEA-FEVER

(By a Land Lubber)

It's well known that I've often planned
To start out for some foreign strand,
Across the waters smooth and blue.
Yes, traveling's the thing to do,
I think an ocean trip is grand.

For when the sea is calm and bland
And on the steamer's deck the band
Is playing melodies to you,
It's swell!

However, on the other hand,
When she begins to rill, I land
Down in my berth. My face in hue
Is sickly green. I'm done, I'm through!
The ocean's fine—but I can't stand
It's swell!

FOUND TURTLE FAR FROM HOME

A turtle weighing in the vicinity of 45 pounds was found yesterday by Agent Harrison (baker of the Humane society in the rear of 515 Bridge street) and was removed to the society's headquarters for safe keeping.

How the turtle got so far away from the river is a mystery as turtles of this size usually live in or near the river, and hardly ever are found more than a hundred yards from the water.

The turtle created considerable interest among the people of Centralville and Agent Barker's removal of the turtle was mourned as several wanted to take the "thing" and have turtle soup for dinner. Agent Barker returned the turtle to the river today.

"Business as usual" was resumed today in Lowell, the "big fellows" of our business and professional life having successfully "blown off the season's steam" at the monster clam bake and outing held by the chamber of commerce and Rotary club at Martin Luther grounds yesterday afternoon.

Staid executives, learned lawyers, dignified doctors, sweet and dainty misses and meekdoms all threw their customary reserve to the winds and got together for a hilarious "racket" that transferred Martin Luther grove to a veritable playground for grown-ups.

The day was perfect for the occasion and all hands entered wholeheartedly into a program that will go down in history as making one of the greatest events of its kind ever held in Middlesex county or out of it.

Fair femininity was present in abundant numbers and foresook frills and demure to join with the rest in putting over a big time. The baseball game, carded as the banner attraction of the day, lived up to expectations. Its success, however, was shared with the other attractions, all of which proved highly popular and amusing.

There were no wall-flowers or stand-offs at yesterday's good time. Everybody jumped in or was dragged into the hilarity of the occasion and nothing was left undone to make the affair one that will be long remembered and often talked of.

The light luncheon that preceded the afternoon's program put everyone on edge for the day's sports, which were entered into with a gusto that surpassed the most optimistic expectations. There was not an idle minute in an afternoon that passed so quickly one hardly realized that it was gone until the call for clams was sounded over the field.

As the big bake was uncovered and all the various little delicacies expected to convert the most capricious epicure were served, hilarity reached its summit. The breaking-up of the party, which followed shortly after the breaking-up of the big red lobsters, was one of genuine disappointment that such a wonderful day should end so soon.

Red cheeks of the fair sex, gained through the excitement of the afternoon's sports, rivaled the complexions of the lobsters which were dragged forth from the steaming rockpile as the bake got underway. Everyone was having the time of his or her life and all hands are already planning on being on deck again next year.

Luncheon First Event

Upon arrival at the grounds Major Walter R. Joyce and Edward W. Galagher, assistant secretary of the chamber, directed the unloading and parking machines and this was completed in very few minutes and with no confusion whatsoever. The first event on the program was a luncheon and the pleasure-seekers hastened to the veranda of the clubhouse to lay in the necessary strength-producing foods to furnish the energy necessary for an afternoon of sport.

A baseball game between the chamber of commerce and the Rotary club was the first event on the sporting program and was won by the chamber team by a score of 13 to 8.

"Bob" Thompson and Harry Pitts formed the battery for Rotary as the game began. Before the first session had ended the chamber team had piled up three runs. Bartel pitched for the Chamber and Paul Doherty wore the mitt and mask. Bartel was effective and his support was steady so the Rotary team only garnered one run in the inning.

Pitts Makes Great Attempt

In the first half of the second inning Bob settled down and his team-mates sensed his control and supported him considerably better than they had in the first.

The Chamber team got one run across before the third man was out. A feature of this inning was Harry Pitts' great but fruitless attempt to get a foul fly. Rotary got to Bartel in the second for two runs in their half and the score stood 4 to 3.

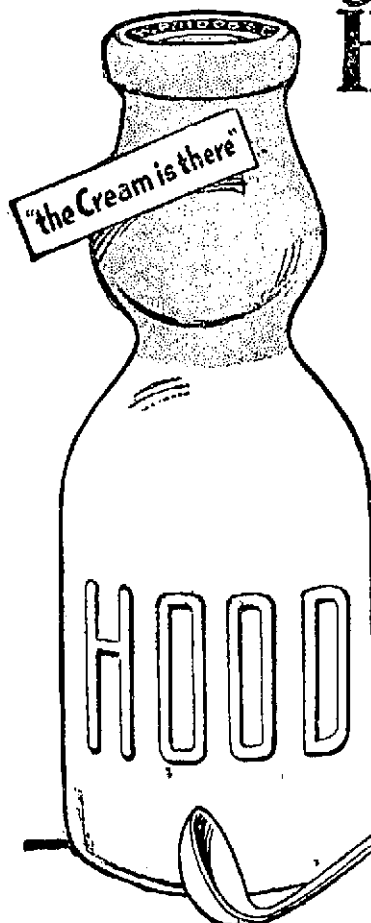

The third was a banner inning for the Chamber. Bob Thompson weakened and only by a major effort could he pitch the ball over the plate. Many of his throws hit the ground in front of the plate. After six runs had been pushed across by the chamber men, Umpire "Charlie" Hobson called the fourth the base umpire, "Ed" Fisher, announced that Ted would pitch and immediately the center of a howling mob of Chamberites. He stuck to his decision, however, as a major league umpire would, and the Chamber's big inning was over. Bartel had perfect control in the last half of the inning and the Rotarians were given the first gooseegg in the box score.

Hobson Essays Pitcher's Role

"Ted" Hobson had been warming up while his brother Rotarians were at bat and, at the beginning of the fourth the base umpire, "Ed" Fisher, announced that Ted would pitch and

Bob Thompson play short for the Rotarians. It was charged the manager of the Rotarians was not at all sure that Ted could carry on for the remaining two innings and was keeping Bob Thompson in the game so that he could be called back if necessary. Hobson treated the Chamberites to a goose-egg in the first.

Tanlac Was a Revelation Says Roxbury Citizen

WALTER H. NEWCOMB

"Tanlac is wonderful and I can't begin to tell how I appreciate what it has done for me," says Walter H. Newcomb, 5 Marshfield street, Roxbury, Mass.

"When I began taking Tanlac I was simply a nervous wreck and completely broken down. I couldn't sleep and eating was just about out of the question. I went down from 165 to 125 pounds in no time. Actually, I was so weak, nervous and irritable I couldn't stand the chatter of our little son."

"Finally my wife took matters in her own hands, got me some Tanlac and it has been a revelation to me. I have taken only three bottles and am now physically fit as I ever was. I will stand by Tanlac as long as I live."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Adv.

SALVATION ARMY TO HELP SULLIVAN FUND

The local Salvation Army has received a call from Miss Booth, the commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army in the United States, asking its cooperation in raising a fund for the Japanese relief. The Salvation Army has been working for quite a number of years in Japan and its representatives there are in touch with the conditions and needs of the stricken people. In her appeal, Miss Booth says: "Immediately the news reached me I cabled to Japan the abounding sympathy of all American salvationists and friends, and whilst waiting news as to the exact nature of the relief that is most needed, I have cabled several thousand dollars, confident that all our many friends would wish me to act with the greatest speed possible in such an unprecedented emergency."

Commander Booth is anxious that the general public should again come to the army's assistance and give as in times past to help this organization to do what is expected of it in this great disaster.

Lowell is asked to contribute $400 and Commander Abbott, officer in charge of the local Salvation Army, is planning to put the kettles which are used for Christmas collections on the streets tomorrow to gather the contributions of any Lowell people desiring to give to this worthy cause. The work the army is planning will in no way duplicate that of the Red Cross, but in many places will supplement it. Any person desirous to help can send in any contributions to the Salvation Army, making checks payable to Mr. R. W. Black, treasurer for Japanese relief.

MEETING TONIGHT OF EX-NAVY MEN

A meeting of ex-navy men has been called for tonight in the high school annex by Horatio B. Leggat. The purpose of the meeting is to form a club of ex-navy men and to make plans for an outing at Martin Luther grounds in the near future.

If the ex-navy men come out in large enough numbers to make the formation of a club and the holding of an outing a success, the officials of the first naval district in Boston will furnish boats and other naval material necessary to make a regatta possible in connection with the outing.

Every naval veteran is invited to attend tonight's meeting as the number present will decide whether the organization of a club is possible.

Will Build Home for Workers

names were entered on the payroll. An insight into the company's attitude is shown by the recent voluntary increase granted the men.

Effective next week, the pay of skilled mechanics will be advanced to 75 cents an hour, this raise being retroactive to Aug. 1. The extra pay day to make up the retroactive balance due will provide a substantial "bonus" for the workers. The back pay difference coming in a lump is expected to prove quite a morale booster.

Striking men maintain the new wage raise is offered more as bait to entice them back to the shops but are sticking out just the same. The greater part have some odd jobs that they are working on that keeps the wolf from the door. While the wage return is not at all to be compared to what they would draw at their trade they are keeping out of debt and maintaining a solid front.

Under the raise, wages reach the highest peak since the war. Despite the heavy wages the railroad officials know that the men, especially the better class of them, and there is a division in all classes, are unsatisfied with their home life. It is with a view to eliminating this sore spot and making the task of filling another man's job more inviting that the corporation is said to be planning to erect homes.

With another winter approaching and the rolling stock not by far in equal condition to what it was in 1920 and 1921 the railroad naturally, in deference to public sentiment, must plan to keep its lines open and its equipment able to maintain some semblance of schedules.

With the most competent shopmen in the country not at their trades this is a difficult job. It would be more difficult should any trouble in the ranks of the "replacement workers" be permitted to reach any growth. It is to still such murmurings of dissatisfaction, union men maintain, that the housing project is receiving such close attention.

the first half of the fourth, but the Rotarians were able to get but one run across the home plate and the score stood 10 to 4 at the start of the final inning.

Chamber Finally Declared Victor

Hobson's shoots were not at all mysterious to the chamber in the fifth and three men crossed the plate. The score was 13 to 4 in favor of the chamber of commerce when the Rotary team came to bat for the last time and grim determination was written in the face of each of the Rotarians—the game must be tied or won. Four runs were pushed in and three men remained on base when the third out was called. The chamber won, 13 to 8, the final analysis shows.

The lineups follow:

Chamber of Commerce: Edward F. Slattery, Jr., 3b, Paul Doherty c, Albert Berkerson Jr., Elmore J. MacPhie, b, Horatio B. Leggat ss, R. E. Hard of Royal P. White 2b, Lewis N. Balfe rf, Leonard J. Bartel lf.
Rotary club: Robert Thompson p, Harry Pitts c, H. Hutchins Parker lf, Paul Murphy 2b, Ted Hobson ss, Paul A. Read 3b, Dr. Herbert E. Davis cf, Fred Walter Jr., W. Blake Irvine rf.

Women Throw the Hammer

The hammer throw for women came next on the program. The hammer was an inflated bag and the winners were those who best judged the wind currents and got distance. Shirley Harris threw the bag the longest distance and Mrs. Fred Walter was a close second.

A golf contest for men and women followed. The game was to drive a golf ball from a rough lie into a wash-tub 25 yards distant. The golfers among the crowd were broadly smiling for they well knew that the prize would go to one of their number. Confidently they stepped up to the mark and took three shots at the tub and missed miserably. After eight men had tried and failed, Ted Hobson took up a club and landed his second shot fair in the tub. He was the only one who succeeded and was declared the fancy golfer of the crowd.

Two Novelty Races

A pipe race for men followed. Pipes were placed at first base, tobacco at second and matches at third, the prize going to the one who first made the circuit of the bases and crossed home plate with his pipe going. Ural Pavlov finished first and Royal P. White second.

A needle race for women came next. This was similar to the pipe race, needles being placed at first, thread at second, and a button and a piece of cloth at third. To complete the race one had to have the button sewed on to the cloth securely. Mrs. Harry Chandler proved to be the faster runner and steamroller. Mrs. Willard Parker was second.

The 25-yard dash for women was won by Shirley Harris with Mrs. Harry Chandler second and Mrs. Fred Walter third.

Tape Walk Affords Fun

Edwin Mellen and Ted Hobson were the only ones to complete the tape walk. This contest was exceptionally difficult as it consisted of walking a tape for 25 yards while looking at the tape through the wrong end of a pair of high-power binoculars.

The fat men's race was the closest contest of the day. William Woods was first and Frank Backholder and Ray Hincley tied for second. In the runoff for second Backholder had a good lead when he fell. Entertained by his fall he rolled under the line just as Hincley hit the tape and another tie was declared. Hincley was winned when the third heat was run and Backholder gained second honors.

The Standing Broad Jump

The standing broad jump for women was a novelty contest that created considerable interest. Each contestant's month was measured by the active officers of the chamber.

Allan Dumas as she smiled her broadest and Mrs. Arthur Osterman was declared the winner. Mrs. R. E. Hard was a close second, only a quarter of an inch behind the winner.

The final sport contest of the day was a tug of war between the Chamber and Rotary baseball teams.

Although the Rotary team had the weight advantage, Commerce succeeded in moving the heavyweights several feet before time was called.

Throughout the afternoon, Aiken's 35th Field Artillery band entertained with pleasing selections.

Grand Old Clambake

The affair was brought to a close with a clambake, which proved to be of the same high quality as had been everything else connected with the outing. The sea-moss was pulled off the delicacies at 5:30 o'clock and within a few minutes clam chowder and steamed clams were being served. Lobster, corn, and a vegetable salad followed. By the time that ice cream and cake was ready most appetites were satisfied and the dessert went begging. Immediately following the bake the party broke up and the return trip was begun with everyone satisfied that the affair was the best ever.

Credit for the success of the affair goes to the outgoing committee of the chamber, consisting of Alvin H. Weaver, chairman; Allan Dumas, Edward W. Daly and Hon. James B. Casey; to the active officers of the chamber.

George F. Wells, secretary-manager and Edward W. Gallagher, assistant secretary, and to Roy Parchert, secretary of the Rotary club.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Physician's Discovery Safely Reduces It To Normal and Dizzy Spells Disappear

If your blood pressure is too high you cannot pass a life insurance examination.

Perhaps you don't know whether you have this trouble or not, but if you have occasional dizzy spells, shortness of breath, pains in the head, hot flashes, are nervous, moody or don't sleep well, your blood pressure is probably higher than it ought to be even if you don't realize it.

Norma, the prescription of a Buffalo physician, reduces high blood pressure and when this result is accomplished all the ailments caused by this abnormal condition will quickly disappear. A. W. WARD JURY NOT YET COMPLETED

38 Veniremen Ready for Examination and Panel of 75 Ordered to Report

Five Jurors Remained to Be Chosen When Trial Was Resumed Today

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Thirty-eight veniremen were ready for examination today and a panel of seventy-five additional talesmen have been ordered to report Monday in an effort to complete selection of a jury to try Walter S. Ward for the murder of Clarence Peters, ex-sailor. Five jurors remain to be chosen.

Of 44 talesmen examined yesterday, only one was accepted by both sides, and when he stepped into the box, Mrs. Ward, who saw her husband in court for the first time since he was committed to jail five weeks ago, lost her pulse and wept. Mrs. Ward's appearance was unexpected as she had been at Atlantic City all summer and was said to have been suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Counsel for the defense said he would not decide until after the prosecution has completed its case whether he would call Mrs. Ward as a witness for the defendant. Attorney General Hoffman probably will call her for the state to testify at what hour Ward returned to his home in New Rochelle on the morning after the shooting of Peters. The law exempts her from testifying against her husband as to any confidences he may have made to her.

Each side is allowed 30 peremptory challenges. At the close of yesterday's session, with seven of the 12 jurors in the box, the state had used 16 and the defense nine. Ward appeared to have regained his confident mien.

While the jury was being sought before Justice Wagner, the extraordinary grand jury that reintroduced Ward for first degree murder continued its investigation on the floor below. The grand jury, it was reported, sought in the examination of 16 witnesses, evidence of why certain witnesses, wanted at the trial, were outside the jurisdiction. The grand jury adjourned until Monday when Mrs. Ward will be called. She was subpoenaed yesterday on her way to lunch.

NATIONAL LAWN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—With the field in the tournament for the national lawn tennis championship reduced to the four players who have provided most of the thrills at the Westmoreland Cricket club during the week, the spectators today in the semi-final matches. Three Americans and one foreigner will fight it out for the right to enter the final round tomorrow. Brian I. C. Norton, the agile little South African, who, by his defeat in the fourth round of R. Norris Williams, captain of this year's American Davis cup team, provided one of the most startling upsets of the tournament, will meet William T. Tilden, 2d, three times winner of the national championship. In one of the semi-finals yesterday, defeated Manuel Alonso of Spain, Spanish player, who is at the top of his game.

ROWE TO FEATURE IN SIX-CYLINDER LOVE

Mr. John Rowe, the popular juvenile with the Al Lattininger Stock Players at the Opera House, will be the featured player in "Six Cylinder Love," the play that will be the next attraction after "The Man Who Came Back."

The original role of "Gilbert Sterling," was created by Ernest Truex, while "Six Cylinder Love" was at the height of its success last season in New York. Next week almost the identical same "Gilbert Sterling" will be in the person of Mr. Rowe, who will give a ripping performance of this extremely funny role.

The addition of Mr. Rowe to the roster of the players in this city is a much welcomed event, for after three remarkable seasons with the Salem unit of the Lattininger Players it was no easy matter getting him away from that city. Mr. Rowe is an extremely clever little chap with an ability that covers from characters to juvenile roles with the same dexterity and careful presentation. Mr. Rowe was among the army of entertainers that went abroad during the war to entertain the boys, having been picked from the ranks while at Fort Leavenworth, given the rating of lieutenant and sent across in charge of an entertaining corps. It is interesting that while acting in this capacity he reached the front trenches many times and humorously tells of playing heavy love scenes in the Y.M.C.A. huts, attired in gas masks.

Mr. Rowe will be seen in many leading roles before this season is over, "Six Cylinder Love" being the first.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

There are specially fine things on this week's bill at the B. F. Keith theatre. It is really hard to make a start of course the inevitable Stan Stanley leads off with his lodge-bodge of many very funny things. Then there is Arthur Leary with the delightful drama, "The Man Who Came Back." It is really one of the best tabloid plays seen here in a long time. Britt Wood and his harmonica also stand in very well with the audience. He is extremely funny, one of the best entertainers we have known. For excellent singing there are the Comptonians trio. The work of the singers is very high grade. The Lorner Sisters are happy dancing girls with a wonderful wardrobe. And Sally Berra is a star of the stage. The picture feature is "The Man Who Came Back."

The program last week with several stars of national fame attracted great audiences but the program this week seems quite as popular. It has an aggregation of rare features that cannot be excelled. As crowded houses have been the order this week thus far, it is expected that seats will be at a premium tonight and tomorrow. The high class vaudeville programs presented at this theatre are excellent as appreciated by the Lowell public.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Tonight's performance and the two performances Saturday are the best chances that Lowell has to see "The Man Who Came Back," that stirring and really interesting story of experience and adventure, that is being offered at the Opera House this week. The play is a credit to the Al Lattininger Stock Players who present it in a manner that is complimentary to the original New York production.

Victor Brown, as "Gilbert Sterling," is excellent and offers the role in a manner that is long to be remembered and credited to his favor. Miss Hazel Corriane, as "Marjorie," his sweetheart, is excellent in all her scenes. In fact every member of the company is worthy of mention as the play this week is a credit to every member of the organization.

Next week the offer offered will be none other than "Six Cylinder Love," the play that has been the talk of every large city in the United States and which will bring hundreds of more laughs to Lowell. Mr. John Rowe will play the role that Ernest Truex played in the original play and will give an interpretation that will challenge even Truex's acting. Seats on sale now for all of next week.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Two of the best photographs that the Merrimack Square movement has brought to Lowell in many months are being shown on the current program at the popular Pines Street amusement house. They are "The Boy Hunter," starring Arnie Arnes, a story of a lively girl who catches the champion woman hunter, and "The Boy Hunter," starring Mollie Davis and Tom Hips in a swift action picture of his own music and comedy. These two pictures are well worth a look and a look at these two pictures. An excellent accompaniment program, including a comedy and the latest News Weekly, is also being presented.

THE STRAND

"Within a Week" the picture which opened the week end entertainment at the Strand Theatre yesterday is a production of extraordinary merit. It is the presentation of the old stage play of the same name which ran for many years in Broadway and in the leading role is Sylvia Thayer, whose talents are well known to those who have seen her in the play. William Russell in "The Boy Hunter" is also a credit to the original New York production.

"The Boy Hunter" is a picture of the remarkable play of American family life, one only more days to show at the Strand, where it has had a successful engagement. It has proved all that was said of it in advance, in fact few pictures this season have received such universal praise. It is a play of the home, with pathos, comedy and sentiment. The cast is more than adequate. The picture's original features are the human appeal and a sensational and strong scene.

Although "The Boy Hunter" played all the big cities at $2.00 prices, the scale of admission at the Strand is indeed very small.

CROWN THEATRE

The fashionable visitors at Pines Beach are many times shown in the backyards of the new Crown Theatre production, "Shun Shoulders," which comes to the Crown Theatre today for an engagement of two days.

Mustard and catsup are the world's most popular condiments.

IS WELL KNOWN HERE

Robert B. Chase of Canton, one of the passengers seriously injured in the wreck at Readville on the New Haven railroad Tuesday, is well known in Lowell having attended the Textile school here for the past three years. He was to enter on his last year of study here on Sept. 27 when the new terms began. Mr. Chase received a compound fracture of the right shoulder, which is at present under treatment at Boston City hospital and his condition is regarded as highly critical.

It is estimated there are 15,000,000 of them in America.

VILLA'S DOMAINS NOW WITHOUT LEADER

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press.)—When Francisco Villa fell at Parral under a hail of bullets a small kingdom in the state of Durango lost its ruler, and nearly 6000 potential soldiers their chief.

The fact that the former bandit leader exercised virtually feudal rights over an extent of mountains and plains as large as the state of Tlaxcala, with a population of nearly 100,000, came to light when a commission representing the "colonists" he had settled around about Cuernavaca journeyed to the capital to ask President Obregon what the policy of the government would be in regard to the Villa holdings. They were told that it would not be altered, and those of the former outlaw's followers who had devoted themselves to agriculture would not be molested.

When Villa first submitted himself to Provisional President Adolfo de Huerta in 1920 and received, for himself and his 50 followers, the hacienda of Cuernavaca, the government thought the Villa problem had been solved. But when the pacified rebel's friends learned of the good luck of those who surrendered with him, hundreds of them addressed petitions to their former leader asking for lands in the district which he dominated. Villa complied, as did the government, and more ranches were bought and turned over to them for the formation of military-agricultural colonies.

Prior to his death Villa was the dominating force in a district included in a line running from Rosario, along the border between Durango and Coahuila through Desahuyadora, El Rodeo and back to Rosario by way of Ornelas. Various villages and towns are included in this district, but most of the inhabitants, despite the existence of these municipal governments, looked to Villa for justice.

IN DISASTER ZONE

Dr. David S. Spencer (left), his wife (right), their son Robert (center), and the latter's wife and three children were in the Japanese earthquake zone at the time of the disaster. No word has been received from them by relatives in Uniontown and Philadelphia, Pa. Dr. Spencer and his wife have lived in Japan for 30 years, doing missionary work for the Methodist Episcopal church. The son's family is believed to have lived on the island of Enoshima, reported to have completely disappeared.

JAPANESE BUY MANY TRACTORS
TOKIO, Sept. 11. (By the Associated Press.)—Tractors, chiefly American made, are supplanting hand labor on the farms of western Japan. There are 13,000 of these on farms in Okayama alone, where farm labor is scarce.

The government gives a small subsidy to assist in the purchase of these machines, and it is contemplating a larger one in line with its policy of assisting agriculture with a view to making Japan self-supporting in the matter of food.

SING SING HEAD SPEAKS

Declares Individual Study Must Be Made of Each Prisoner

BOSTON, Sept. 11. With extension of the use of the intermediate sentence and parole plan in dealing with criminals was advocated by Lewis E. Lawes, warden of Sing Sing prison and president of the American Prison Association, in an address at the opening session of the annual congress of the association here last night. An individual study, he said, must be made of each prisoner.

"Three-quarters of the criminal cases presented to the courts of New York," he said, "are of offenders under 21, many of whom have fathers and mothers. When the state takes charge through one of its penal institutions of one found guilty of a breach of its laws, these fathers and mothers and the prisoner himself have a right to know whether the state intends to provide the opportunity to straighten out the mental or moral situation, to have his or her health conserved and improved, to have provided the education that was neglected, and thus equipped, to be enabled to take his place in the community as a useful and desirable member of it."

As an effective means of prevention of juvenile delinquency, Warden Lawes urged more playgrounds, community centers to provide wholesome recreation, extension of the Boy Scout movement, "and the interest of adult organizations in the boy of today who may be the criminal of tomorrow," erecting of model tenements to be rented at reasonable prices, stricter enforcement of compulsory school attendance and prohibition by federal statute of the sale of revolvers, with rare exceptions.

"A more effective solution of the production problem must be offered," he added. "The widespread breach of the prohibition law among otherwise law-abiding citizens tends to create contempt for all law. If it cannot be enforced in the future, more effectively than in the past, it were better to acknowledge frankly its unenforceability and to change the law to a more liberal interpretation or system of prohibition capable of enforcement."

FATHER FOUND TWO-YEAR-OLD BOY VERY SICK

Was Constipated, Thin, No Appetite, Had Swollen Lips, Stomach Pains

A hardy woodsman and enthusiastic fisherman of Maine, has a very interesting record to report. He writes: "As a boy, thirty-seven years ago, I began to take Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. Once after six months hauling logs, I came out of the woods and found my two-year-old boy very sick. He was thin, had no appetite, had swollen lips, pains in stomach, was suffering from constipation for months.

practically raised his family on Dr. True's Elixir. The children go out and get hold of something not good for them. It's hard to watch all the children, and so when they eat something they shouldn't and get sick, Dr. True's Elixir is given and the family is put in good shape again.

"I have read in the papers you have to take a half a dozen bottles of some remedies, but you don't have to do this with Dr. True's Elixir. Simply a few doses and then quick relief. The three generations of my family have been kept healthy by using it."

Symptoms of worms, constipation, offensive breath, swollen upper lip, deranged stomach, occasional pains in the bowels, pale face, eyes heavy and dull, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, red points on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Nearly every child and grown-up needs a laxative sometime. The fond parents safeguard the health of their children, as well as their own, by keeping their bowels in condition. The herbs used in Dr. True's Elixir are imported and of strictly pure quality. No harmful drugs. Keep the bowels regular by using Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. 49c—60c—$1.20. Adv.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE OMER GERMAIN JAPANESE FUND

The funeral of Omer Germain, 23-year-old son of Mrs. Anna Germain of 48 Ferry lane, this city, killed in an automobile accident in Albany, N. Y. last Monday night, took place at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning from the Church of the Assumption, Albany. Members of his family at the services included Miss Blanche L. Germain.

OMER GERMAIN

cashier at the Waldorf lunch in this city and his brother, Alfred P. Germain, also of this city.

For the past few years, the former Lowell boy had been employed in the luncheon business in Albany, being connected with the Waldorf and Allen, systems, and the employees of both these companies sent beautiful flowers. There were many other floral and spiritual tributes. Burial was in St. Anne's cemetery, Albany.

Makers of books for the blind not only are printing raised letters now, but raised pictures as well.

SOUcier CHARGED WITH LOWELL DISTRICT COURT LARCENY OF JEWELRY

Emile E. Soucier, aged about 33 years, was placed under arrest early this morning on the charge of larceny of jewelry valued at $223 from Marion Therrien. He was brought before the court and at his request the case was continued until next Tuesday, bail being placed at $500. The police charge that Soucier entered the Therrien girl's room while she was out, gaining entrance with a key, and among the things stolen were the following: the police claim: One ring valued at $100, ring valued at $10, ring valued at $8, ring valued at $5, watch valued at $50, pin valued at $10 and about $30 in money. Soucier and the complainant were roomers in the same house on West Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blanchard have returned to Hartford, Conn., after spending their honeymoon in Lowell with relatives and friends. They were married two weeks ago in Hartford. John J. Gordon, superintendent of moth work, leaves next Monday on a vacation of two weeks. A slight blaze in the kitchen of the house numbered 19 Perrin street, was responsible for an alarm from box 117 at 7:35 o'clock this morning. Miss Margarette Woodbury, who has been in New York city all summer taking a course at Y. W. C. A. headquarters, has returned to her duties on the Lowell Y. W. C. A. International Institute staff. Mrs. Katherine A. Buckland and her daughter, Barbara, and Mrs. William B. Heady, her son, William Jr., and daughter, Catherine, are touring New Jersey. Miss Gabrielle Piquin of 37 Arlington street, having successfully passed the stenographer-secretary examination, is leaving for Washington tomorrow, where she will be connected with the civil service commission department. She has been in the employ of Asst. Dist. Atty. Gardner W. Pearson for the past five years. During the six months ended June 30, 39 airway accidents figured in the world's news involving 196 deaths. In England 11,150 passengers were carried by aircraft last year.

IRISH SOCIETIES HOLD MASS MEETING

At a well attended mass meeting of local Irish societies in the new headquarters in the Grosvenor building last night, it was announced that an entire week will be devoted to a carnival in the Casino in Thorndike street, at a date to be announced in the near future. Competent committees will be appointed to superintend the affair, which promises to eclipse any former event of this nature conducted under Liberatorian auspices in this city. While the bazaar held in Associate hall last winter was a success from every angle, socially and financially, the coming affair will surpass it by far.

In the sentiment expressed on all expressed gratification at the large mass meeting last night, the president of the Irish societies, James J. McMahon, president of the central council, presided at the meeting. He explained that the object of the gathering was to discuss ways and means of maintaining the low quarters in an up-to-date fashion and to plan for social functions during the coming fall and winter along the same lines. Secretary John Barrett gave a brief history of the various divisions and emphasized the few remarks. President McMahon value of continued co-operative effort.

Victim of Suitcase Mystery Positively Identified by Husband

HIGHWAYS TO BE RID AT ONCE OF DRUNKEN AND RECKLESS DRIVERS OF AUTOS

Register of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin has written to Clerk Edward W. Trull of the Lowell district court, saying that "it is vitally important to take reckless and drunken drivers off the highways as soon as possible."

Because of this, he has asked the clerk, whenever a driver is convicted in district court of operating while drunk, or in a reckless manner, to supplement the report to the state highway commission with the address of the driver and license number of the car so convicted.

This is essential to speedy revocation of their licenses, the register states, as there are now approximately 500,000 operators in the state carrying licenses, and as many of the names are similar, it is at times unable to locate some of them without delay.

Titleholder Weighs More Than at Any Time in Career—Firpo Weighs 216½

100 New Jersey Undertakers Have Ringside Seats for Tonight's Fight

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) When Jack Dempsey defended his heavyweight title against Luis Angel Firpo tonight at the Polo Grounds, he will weigh more than at any time in his championship career. He scaled 192½ this afternoon when weighed before the state athletic commission. His challenger had not put in an appearance when the titleholder stepped off the scales.

Firpo arrived half an hour late, wearing a broad grin and howling profusely to the crowd that filled the commission's office. He remarked to newspapermen as he entered the examining room that he was feeling "perfect."

Chairman Muldoon of the boxing commission asked Dempsey not to wear an American flag around his belt during the fight and the champion refused. The chairman also requested that Jack don a pair of black trunks but the champion asked that he be permitted to wear the pair of old white ones that he has used in previous title bouts, and Mr. Muldoon acquiesced.

Firpo Weighs 216½

The Argentine made the indicator of the scales tremble at the 216½ pound mark, and then stepped over to be measured. His height was officially recorded at 6 feet 2 inches, two inches taller than his opponent. He was 4½ pounds heavier than when he met Jess Willard.

After waiting 15 minutes in the commission's office in the Flatiron building, 33rd street, Dempsey departed and then met his Argentine rival until they face each other in the ring tonight. They have never met.

Dempsey was accompanied by his

ITALY YIELDS WAR AVERTED

Finally Consents to Evacuate Corfu Before End of Present Month

Greece to Punish Murderers of Italian Members of Mission

PARIS, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The danger to the peace of Europe from the Italian occupation of Corfu ended last night, when after another difficult session, the ambassador's council came to a full agreement. Italy finally consented to evacuate Corfu before the end of September.

It is also understood the council agreed that if on the date of evacuation the inter-allied commission of inquiry reports that Greece has not done all possible to discover and punish the assassins of the Italian members of the Greco-Albanian boundary mission, the 50,000,000 lire deposited by the Greek government shall be paid over to the Italian government as reparations.

Up to almost the last moment the Italians insisted that the powers ought to take Premier Mussolini's word as to the evacuation and leave it to him to fix the exact date after the reparation measures had been carried out.

The British ambassador insisted

$50,000 TRANSFER OF TENEMENT PROPERTY

A transfer of dwelling house property in Belvidere, involving upwards of $50,000 recently has been made, whereby George C. Fairburn, owner of Fairburn's market, has purchased from Simon Cassis seven blocks embracing 22 tenements.

The property is located in Chestnut street and Chestnut square, situated between High and Willow streets.

Mr. Fairburn said today he purchases for investment. No real estate broker was involved in the transfer.

MAN WITH TICKETS FOR BIG BOUT ARRESTED

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Asa H. Raymond, formerly of Boston, was arrested today upon his arrival from the Philippines.

Raymond held two ringside tickets for the Dempsey-Firpo fight and made strenuous objections to going to jail on a warrant sworn out in Boston by Judge Lawrence, who charged him with the larceny of $90 in a business deal many months ago.

Eyeglasses mounted on gold handles are becoming the fad for men in Europe.

East Bridgewater Man Came to Lowell Today and Identified Body of River Victim as That of His Wife

Mrs. Alice Wolschendorf, Aged 43 Years, Who Disappeared After Visiting Office of Dr. Robb in Boston, Was Victim of Suitcase Mystery—Husband and Brother Came Here Today and Made Positive Identification By Scar on Index Finger

George Wolschendorf of East Bridgewater, late this afternoon positively identified the Tyngsboro suitcase victim as his wife, who was last seen alive entering the office of Dr. William M. Robb in Boston, on August 27. Mr. Wolschendorf was positive of his identity by means of a small scar on the index finger of the left hand, which he said had been caused by blood poisoning.

The husband of the woman came to Lowell this afternoon accompanied by the woman's brother, Charles H. Orcutt of Somerville and State Police Officers Michael F. Fleming and Edward P. O'Neil, and they went directly to O'Donnell's undertaking rooms on Market street, to which place the torso and arms and legs of the victim had been returned after having been taken to the Harvard Medical school for a pathological examination by Medical Examiner Charles Burgess McGrath of Suffolk county.

The four came directly from the district attorney's office in East Cambridge and arrived at O'Donnell's at 3 o'clock. There they awaited the arrival of Medical Examiner Marshall B. Ailing, who reached the undertaking parlors about 3.35 o'clock. Within a few minutes afterwards the husband was shown the remains and he immediately declared he was positive that it was his wife, by the scar on the finger.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S STATEMENT

The following official statement for the press was made by District Attorney Reading shortly after noon today:

"For several weeks the state police have been seeking to learn the whereabouts of Mrs. Alice M. Wolschendorf, wife of George E. Wolschendorf of East Bridgewater.

"Mrs. Wolschendorf was 43 years of age; approximately five feet four inches in height, gray-haired and bluish gray eyes. She was rather stocky and weighed approximately 145 pounds.

"She was last seen on August 27 entering the office of Dr. William N. Robb at 353 Massachusetts avenue, Boston, Mass. All efforts to locate her through relatives and friends have proven fruitless. At the time she was last seen Mrs. Wolschendorf wore a blue and white check dress and was carrying a 16-inch russet colored bag."

Search For Dr. Robb Continues

The search for Dr. William M. Robb, a physician, with offices in the Back Bay, continued today. It was said that information given by members of the Wolschendorf family led the authorities to begin their search for him.

It was on Sept. 1 that a black suitcase was found floating in the Merrimack river below the Tyngsboro bridge, which when drawn to the bank was found to contain the upper part of the torso of a woman. The next day a similar suitcase was found containing the legs of the same body. Search in the river and surrounding countryside failed to reveal the missing head and until today the authorities refused to disclose what clues they were following.

Dr. Hayes Stowe of Brockton was called here yesterday, it became known today, and was questioned at length by District Attorney Reading. What transpired at the conference has not been made public. It was said that George Wolschendorf, husband of the missing woman, Thomas Brown of Brockton and Harold Wolschendorf were also questioned.

BURNS MAKES TRIPLE PLAY UNASSISTED

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—George Burns, first baseman of the Boston American league club, made a triple play unassisted in the second inning of the game with Cleveland today.

Stephenson started the inning with a single. Latze walked and then Brewer lined to Burns who touched out Latze on the base path and then beat Stephenson on a sliding race for second base.

REPORTED THAT BOSTON & MAINE WILL BUILD HOMES FOR WORKERS AT BILLERICA CAR SHOP

Hours for Boston & Maine carshop workers may be built in Billerica by the corporation.

Rumors to the effect that the railroad plans to provide corporation-owned homes for their employees in the carshops have been gaining credence for the past few days. High officials of the B. & M. are reticent and confirmation or denial of the truth in the report is hard to obtain.

Since April, 1922, when the shopmen all over the system went out on strike the B. & M. has had its troubles with the "replacement workers" imported from the four corners of the earth to keep the wheels turning throughout the system. Every attraction has been held out to keep these men satisfied and contented with their jobs. This mainly because of the solid front of union workers who have stuck by their guns throughout the long strike and have insisted that their demands be met.

Said to have any trouble with the new men the railroad has had to handle them most tactfully ever since their

10 P. C. Increase for Shoe Workers

BROCKTON, Sept. 14.—The Brockton Shoe Manufacturers' association at 10 o'clock announced a general 10 per cent increase to take effect Sept. 30. The increase had been requested by the joint shoe council some time ago, following the settlement of a strike, conducted by independent factions who desired to break away from the Boot & Shoe Workers Union. A 10 per cent cut in wages was announced in March, 1922, by the state board of arbitration and since that time, matters have been more or less disturbed. The increase will affect approximately 13,500 operatives, employed in 63 factories.

SPANISH CABINET DIRECTORS OF HAS RESIGNED

King Alfonso Hurries Back to Capital—Spanish Squadron at Barcelona

MADRID, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Spanish cabinet resigned this morning. King Alfonso has returned to the capital.

It is understood that the premier requested his majesty to grant the government facilities for punishment of the military revolutionists in Barcelona and elsewhere. The king refused and the premier thereupon submitted the resignation of the entire cabinet.

The newspaper A. B. C. says it understands that Primo Rivera, captain-general of Barcelona and leader of the military movement against the government, will preside over a direct

HELD FOR GIRL'S DEATH

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 14.—Ben F. Morse, prominent merchant of Glendale, Tennessee, is held here on a charge of manslaughter while charged with the death of an unidentified woman whose body was found on a roadside near here yesterday afternoon.

Morse declared to officers that the woman had been accidentally killed when struck by his automobile.

Officers said, however, that indications were that the woman, apparently 20 years of age, met her death by other means.

(Associated Press)—A semi-official statement issued here today says:
"In view of the fact that the words 'military rising' have been repeatedly used in telegrams describing the situation in Spain, may lead to an incorrect interpretation of the position it is necessary to emphasize that in Madrid, and, according to all information received here, at Barcelona, Saragossa, Bilbao and other provincial towns, calm prevails.
"All troops are everywhere confined to their barracks. The streets and public places maintain their accustomed aspect, all shops and public establishments are open and traffic is circulating normally.
"No cessation of work has occurred."

To Put Down Revolt
PARIS, Sept. 14.—A Spanish naval squadron has arrived at Barcelona and it is understood that the admiral has received drastic orders to put down the revolt headed by Captain-General Primo Rivera, says a despatch to Le Journal from San Sebastian.
King Alfonso, accompanied by Jose Sanchez Guerra, the former premier, left for Madrid last evening, the correspondent asserts. He adds that the situation is extremely confused, but that the prevailing impression at San Sebastian is that Rivera will succeed in overthrowing the government.
All communication with France by telephone has been interrupted since yesterday morning and the strictest censorship has been established.

Foreigners Under Surveillance
BARCELONA, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) Leaders of the revolutionary movement are keeping foreigners under close surveillance and are granting to only a few persons permission to cross the frontier. Captain-General Primo Rivera explained in an interview that the purpose of the movement was "cleaning up politics and making them honest." The revolt has extended to Madrid, according to Rivera, although the officers there have been kept to their barracks.
Information received at Barcelona, the captain-general affirmed, led to the belief that the government would resign when the king reached the capital.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF JOHN J. KELTY

Members of practically every Catholic church choir of the city, many clergymen and hundreds of Lowell and out-of-town people, were in attendance at the funeral services of John J. Kelty, former organist at the Sacred Heart church, which took place this morning at St. Margaret's church.

The funeral cortege, headed by an automobile filled with floral offerings, left his home, 322 Pine street, and wound its way to the church, where at 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated. Practically every pew in the church was taken, for deceased was well and favorably known in this city. The celebrant of the mass was the pastor, Rev. Charles J. Galligan, who was assisted by Rev. Andrew O'Brien as deacon and Rev. Bernard Fletcher, O.M.I., as sub-deacon. Seated within the sanctuary were Rev. Dr. John J. McFarley, pastor of St. Patrick's; Rev. Dr. James Supple, Rev. Denis A. Sullivan, O.M.I., pastor of the Sacred Heart church; Rev. Wil-

Ham Mahan, O.M.I., Rev. Fr. Coffey, O.M.I., Rev. James McCarthy, O.M.I., Rev. Francis X. McGinn, O.M.I., and Rev. T. Franklin Wood, O.M.I.

The choir, augmented for the occasion by representatives of numerous Catholic church choirs of the city, rendered the Gregorian chant under the direction of J. N. Gullbault, who also presided at the organ. The solos of the "Dies Irae" were sustained by William Goulton of the Immaculate Conception church. At the offertory, Miss Kathleen Jennings of the Sacred Heart church sang "Lobach's 'Die Jesu'"; and after elevation Miss Stella Latour of St. Joseph's church rendered Rosewig's "O Mortem Passantem." The solos of the Libera were sustained by Andrew McCarthy. Among those in the choir were the following: Mrs. Nana Gallagher, Leahy, and James King, Immaculate Conception church; Miss Della Lavigne, organist at Notre Dame de Lourdes; Mrs. Ella Reilly, organist at St. Michael's; Joseph Egan, Miss Annie Lynch and John McGinnis, Sacred Heart church; Michael A. Johnson, organist at St. Patrick's; Dr. E. Casagran, St. Jean Baptiste church; and E. J. Larochelle, St. Jeanne d'Arc church.

The bearers were Thomas J. Ray-

FUNERALS

PACHECO—The funeral of Antonio Pacheco took place this morning at 9 o'clock from his late home, 61 Chapel street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral cortege proceeded to St. Anthony's church where at 10 o'clock, Rev. Bishop Henry Da Silva officiated, assisted by Rev. Eugene Vincent as deacon and Francisco Gauthier as sub-deacon. The choir sang the Gregorian chant, the solos being sustained by Mrs. Evelyn S. Donnelly; Mrs. Rose Thomas, Mrs. Mary E. McAlister, Miss Marie O'Donnell, presiding at the organ. There was a profusion of beautiful floral offerings. The bearers were Manuel M. Santos and Antonio Pacheco, A. B. association, Antonio Plesano and J. M. Beaucourt of St. Anthony's society, and Anthony do Costa, Joseph B. de la Lanza, of the Lanza association. Burial took place in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the communal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Vincent. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

MORSE—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Morse took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from the funeral parlors of James W. McKenna Sons, and was largely attended. The cortege proceeded to St. Michael's church where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Aloysius J. Madden. The choir under the direction of Miss Margaret Griffin rendered the Gregorian chant, the solos being sustained by Mrs. Margaret McDonough Maguire and Miss Griffin. Mrs. Ella Reilly presided at the organ. There were many floral offerings as well as spiritual bouquets. The bearers were Messrs. Charles Johnson, James O'Loughlin, James McDonough, and William Griffin. The burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Madden read the communal prayers at the grave. The arrangements were in charge of Funeral Directors James W. McKenna Sons.

JOHNSON—Funeral services for Mrs. Eva O'Johnson were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emil C. Lind in Riverbank road, yesterday afternoon, and were largely attended. Rev. C. H. Ellis of the Central Baptist church officiated at the house and read the communal service at the grave in Pine Ridge cemetery. The bearers were Emil C. Lind, A. M. Gray, Peter Clark and Herman Swanson. There were many beautiful flowers. Arrangements were in charge of Undertakers Verham.

ADIE—Mrs. Margaret Adie, aged 56 years, a well known and highly respected resident of St. Peter's parish, died suddenly at her home, 31 Lyons street, yesterday, and was survived by two sons, William and James Adie.

A memorial mass for the repose of the soul of the late James P. McAdams, requested by friends, was celebrated this morning at 8 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church. There was a large congregation present. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. J. B. McCarthy, O.M.I. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Walker, who also presided at the organ, rendered the Gregorian chant. At the offertory Mrs. Walker and Chas. P. Smith rendered "De Profundis."

The body will be taken to Medford for burial by Undertaker William H. Saunders.

OPENS NEW STORE IN BRIDGE STREET

C. H. Willis, proprietor of the big market in Prescott and Merrimack streets, opened his new store in Bridge street, Centralville, today. This makes the third Willis store in Lowell, another link of the chain being operated in the Highlands. Mr. Willis has been catering to the wants of the Lowell public for the past 25 years and has built an enviable reputation of which he is justly proud.

Twenty-five years ago, then only a boy, Mr. Willis came to Lowell from Ware and entered the employ of Pike's market in Middlesex street. He learned the business from a to z and soon opened a small store of his own on Westford street. He kept abreast of the times and the Lowell Public Market in the square reflects his business ability.

Mr. Willis modestly disclaims great credit for his success, saying it is the natural result of sticking to give the public what it wants, the way it wants it, as reasonably as it can be had, operating on a small margin of profit, he has built a big business in Lowell. He now plans a group of chain stores eventually embracing the entire city. The Centralville unit is just a step in conjunction with this scheme. From time to time he plans to further expand. His loyal employees and satisfied customers unite in wishing him continued success in his undertakings.

quite as strongly that peace operations throughout the world ought to be reassured by a definite arrangement that would put an end to the talk that Italy intended to remain in Corfu indefinitely. He asked that the Italian premier choose a fixed date which would be nearly enough to set all speculation as to Italy's intentions at rest.

The allies assured the Italian ambassador that the greatest diligence would be exercised in pursuing the inquiry into the assassination of Gen. Tellini and the other members of the Italian boundary commission and pleaded with him to urge Rome to accept the desire of Great Britain and fix a precise date for the evacuation of Greek territory, so as to relieve the world of anxiety. The afternoon session was postponed until 6 o'clock, and then again to 6:30 o'clock in order to give time for the ambassadors to communicate with their governments.

Two more hours were occupied by the ambassadors at the evening session before they would come to an agreement, but eventually it was announced with an air of great relief that Italy had agreed to evacuate

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis, accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take it teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated feeling out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

An official communiqué issued soon afterwards said:

"The ambassadors' council has adopted a resolution which it considers such as will put an end to the situation created by the assassination of the Italian delegation. The resolution will be immediately transmitted to Athens and also communicated to the league council and will be made public at noon Friday."

Another Miracle
CORFU, Sept. 14.—Inhabitants of Corfu attribute another miracle to their revered St. Spiridon, whose body, entombed in the cathedral here, is exposed periodically at various religious functions and carried in procession through the town.

There is now a general belief among the common people that the saint has locked himself up in his grotto because he is angered at the occupation of the town by the Italians.

Numerous pilgrimages visit the tomb daily and many flowers are placed upon it. An unusual religious fervor is manifest, crowds of Corfuites attending the daily services in the churches.

With this number Bray and Sheerin recently won the New England dancing championship event at Hartford, Conn. It is expected to take Lowell by storm. Miner & Doyle will provide the orchestration.

POLICE FIND 19 BARRELS OF BEER

In consequence of a visit to the Fal-mouth luncheon at 26 Williams street last night, Sergeant Winn and Officers William Linton, Alfred Kilby, Patrick Bagley, Samuel McBlroy and John Leahy confiscated 19 barrels of alleged real beer, said to have been transported from Lawrence. The goods are reputed to sell at $13 a barrel, wholesale.

When the officers entered the premises, alleged to be owned by Thomas A. Grady, they found 19 men assembled there. Considerable attention was attracted when a large truck transported the seizure to the police station. The place is conducted under a common victualler's license.

ANNEXATION OF FIUME

Mussolini to Announce Withdrawal of Italian Troops From Porto Barros

PARIS, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) When Premier Mussolini declares the annexation of Fiume to Italy, he will announce the withdrawal of the Italian troops from Porto Barros, the adjoining harbor, it is learned here from an authoritative quarter. He will thus give up any claim to that port, to Suak and to the delta there, which will be left to Jugoslavia.

London Nurses Ordered to Allow Their Hair to Grow—Stores Also Act

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Bobbed hair, which is rapidly passing out here, is getting a few kicks to help it along its way. The latest comes from Manchester hospital, where all nurses have been ordered to allow their hair to grow. In the future, no young lady with short locks will be allowed to look after the patients.

Many London restaurants and department stores have issued notices to the same effect.

WELLESLEY, Sept. 14.—Once more tradition of ancient China was broken when a smiling little girl slipped quietly into Wellesley and rented a hall bedroom in a small boarding house on a side street. The girl was Miss Grace Li, daughter of Li Yuan-Kung, president of the Great Eastern republic. In direct contradiction of the immemorial custom of insulating the daughters of the rulers of China with troops of attendants, Miss Li arrived with but one companion, Miss Harriet Chou, herself only 21 years old.

The girls are entered at Wellesley college to take two-year courses in political economy, because they want to. Asked if her father had sent her, Miss Li tossed her head, smiled, and said: "I came to Wellesley because I felt like it. No one tells me what to do."

After saying that America had lived up to her expectations and that she believed in women's suffrage although admitting that Chinese femininity was hardly advanced enough to use the ballot yet, and that her people were fond of Americans, she was asked whether she was married.

"Of course not," she replied. "I've never seen the man I'd want to marry." Chinese are no longer betrothed as infants, she declared with emphasis. "That was so once but not now among the educated classes. We do as we want to. We are not bossed nowadays."

CHELMSFORD GRANGE HOLDS ANNUAL FAIR

The Chelmsford Centre town hall was the scene of a large gathering yesterday afternoon and evening, the occasion being the annual fair under the auspices of the Chelmsford Grange. Hundreds of people attended the fair and incidentally spent money freely at the various sales tables. The affair was one of the most successful of its kind in a long time and the committee in charge was warmly congratulated for the manner in which the event was conducted.

The lobby and lower and upper halls of the building were occupied and these three places were the scene of considerable activity. In the lobby there were ice cream, tonic and chip tables, while in the upper hall were sales tables of all varieties and those in charge reported a thriving business. The lower hall was taken up with a fine exhibition of poultry.

Between the hours of 8.30 and 1.30 a bountiful supper was served in I.O.O.F. hall under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis A. Alken. At 8.30 o'clock the following program was given in the upper hall:

Spanish dance, Doris Clark; "Jingle Bells," Kathleen Brooks; the dance, Dorothy Mahan; waltz clog, Dorothy Shearer; bell boy dance, Lawrence

Judge; "The Policeman and the Flapper," Barrett sisters. All the little folks were pupils of Miss Doris E. Conley of Lowell and were a taking feature. Mrs. Nettie Roberts of Lowell contributed two solos and two pretty dances were given by the little Misses Bernadette and Madeline Finegan. Hon. John Jacob Rogers was present and gave a short address.

The general arrangements of the affair were under the direction of the following officers of the grange: Perley W. Kimball, master; Mrs. Eva McMaster, lecturer. The tables were in charge of the following committees: Poultry exhibit, Perley W. Kimball, chairman; Abbot Russell, Edwin Warren, Allen Adams, Norman Johnson, vegetables, William E. Belleville, fruit, Everett and Edwin Whitcomb, flowers, Mrs. Marion Lupton, Mrs. Dora Terham, canned goods, Mrs. Pearl Whitcomb, Mrs. Carrie Hartman, Miss Evelyn Russell, grub table, Mrs. Jennie Kneeland, Mrs. Ernest DeKilb, household table, Mrs. Hazel Belleville, Mrs. Della Wallie, donation table, Frank E. RUSSIAN TREASURES ARE SOLD CHEAP

LONDON, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press.)—The vast collections of law, art and treasures of the Romanoff family gradually are finding their way to the many auction rooms of London and Paris. They have come in such abundance during the last two years that they cease to excite curiosity or to bring more than the normal price for such articles.

Recently the most remarkable collection of 442 old French snuff boxes in existence, once the property of the Romanoff family, was sold in London for about $50,000, considered a low price.

One of the specimens, a gold oval Louis XV. box, beautifully chased, with a miniature of Frederick II. in the lid and a small watch in the bottom, said to have been presented to Voltaire by Frederick II., brought $5000.

EMPEROR'S EFFECTS SELL FOR $10,000

LONDON, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press.)—Members of England's aristocracy and highest families stood with almost tearful eyes when the once priceless effects of the late Emperor Eugene of France were sold under the hammer at ridiculously small prices, but still beyond their impoverished purses. The goods sold were principally his late majesty's dresses, slippers, gowns, lace and furs.

Most of the stuff was bought by dealers, although some of the former emperor's servants and followers were able to buy small articles.

The hundred and sixty lots brought about $10,000, which would hardly have paid for one of the court gowns worn at the royal festivities in the days of splendor.

A lot of rare Alencon lace brought $1115 and a fur stole $525. A beautiful rug into which was woven the royal cipher with the arms of Spain and France, given to the emperor on her wedding day by the emperor's mother, was bought by a Frenchman and will be presented to a French museum. It is supposed to have been on this rug that the Emperor Napoleon III. and Empress Eugenie knelt when they received the blessing after their marriage.

by Dr. C.C. Robinson

Do you eat to live or live to eat? Henry Ward Beecher once said that many people were digging their graves with their teeth. This is another way of saying that too many people bite off more than they can properly chew. That's where the weight trouble begins.

If your baby begins life weighing eight pounds, the average healthy gain should be about four ounces a week. At one year the baby should weigh 21 or 25 pounds. Through childhood, the normal gain depends on proper food, freedom from disease, environment, and natural adaptation to the type one represents, heavy, athletic or slender.

Five Pounds an Inch

At the age of 15, an average boy, five feet in height, should weigh about 105 pounds; a girl about the same or slightly more. At the age of 20, when full maturity is reached in most cases, the gain in weight should cease. At this time, a man five feet nine inches in height, should weigh about 160 pounds; a woman five feet five inches, the ideal stature, about 135 pounds. These weights are without clothing. For each additional inch in height you are allowed about five pounds increase in weight.

It is quite generally recognized by physicians that many people inherit certain tendencies in stature and weight. But you can regulate your weight, in spite of inheritances, by systematic exercise and careful eating. You must do it the same way you do your work. It must be done every day and all the time. "Rise from the table with an appetite and you will never sit down without one."

A Health Barometer

Do not allow yourself to accumulate a lot of useless fat cells. Prevention, in this case, is worth more than a pound of cure. Weight is a kind of health barometer, and a reliable one at that. If you are 10 pounds over weight at 35, don't worry or attempt any reducing, except under a physician's care. Any attempt at rapid reduction by steam baths, massage, or drugs, is dangerous. You, too, may fade away.

The great, vital issue in this food and weight business is how to convey to the millions of people who surely need it, the real knowledge which they should possess for a healthful and sufficient daily dietary.

I thoroughly believe that this should be furnished them in some clearly tabulated or charted form by state and local health boards, and posted conspicuously in all food shops. These charts should show the relative energy and weight values, together with the cost of the foods which are health giving, and can commonly be used to the best advantage in the ordinary family.

TO RESUME DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS ON FIUME

BELGRADE, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) The Italian charge d'affaires here informed the Yugoslav government last evening of President Mussolini's desire that direct negotiations between Rome and Belgrade regarding Fiume be resumed.

No decision has yet been reached here, but the resumption of negotiations on a fresh basis is considered possible.

BEVERLY POLICE

CHIEF INDICTED

LAWRENCE, Sept. 14.—Chief of Police John E. Hayes of Beverly was indicted by the grand jury yesterday afternoon for an assault with a dangerous weapon. He is accused of having shot Miss Evelyn Spinney and John H. Winston, both of Lynn, when he attempted to stop an automobile in which they were riding in Beverly early on the morning of June 10.

"Dr. King, I Want Teeth I Can Eat With"

A man came into this office some time ago and made the above statement. He said he had two sets of teeth and could not eat with either of them. I made him a set and he came into the office later and said they were the only ones he could keep in his mouth while eating. In fact he could chew peanuts and eat apples without the least trouble.

Our crowns and bridgework are guaranteed to give entire satisfaction and may be obtained by all those who do not desire full sets of teeth.

BROCKTON COUPLE KILLED ON R. R. CROSSING

CHARLESTOWN, N. H., Sept. 14.—Joseph E. Lepage of Brockton, Mass., and his wife, formerly Mrs. Addie Curtis, also of Brockton, were instantly killed yesterday when their automobile was struck at Charles crossing near here by the south-bound White Mountain express on the Boston & Maine railroad. The car and its occupants were thrown more than 40 feet by the impact of the train, and the two bodies were almost cut in pieces.

According to the train crew, the automobile had almost cleared the crossing but the rear wheel was caught by the locomotive. The train was brought to a stop before the rear car had passed the crossing. The automobile was traveling south toward Lowell Falls on the main highway from Charlestown. Police and members of the train crew were unable to explain Lepage's attempt to cross ahead of the train, as the road parallels the railway line for some distance on the lower level at that point and the train must have been clearly visible. The train was 20 minutes late and making up time when the collision occurred.

Were on Auto Trip to Maine
BROCKTON, Sept. 14. Joseph E. Lepage and his wife, resident of this city, who were killed in a railroad crossing accident near Charlestown, N. H., yesterday, left on Monday, announcing that they intended to take an automobile trip to Maine.

Lepage, whose parents live in Boston, N. H., came here a year ago as a hostler at the Brockton fair. On July 14 he married Mrs. Addie Curtis, who had been granted a divorce from her first husband last year. They resided at the home of Mrs. Lepage's parents here.

Mrs. Lepage is survived by two daughters, Eleanor, who is in Boston, and Thelma, who resides at Lewiston, Me.

BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE MEETING

Business of a routine nature was transacted yesterday afternoon by the board of public service.

A contract to furnish and install new guard rail for the Moody street bridge over the river was awarded to Frank A. Donnelly, who had submitted two or three weeks ago was $1840.

The board received a petition from filter superintendents of the water works for shorter hours and increased pay, but after discussing it gave it leave to withdraw.

The matter of giving the Lowell Electric Light Corp. the right to dig up paving at Central and Prescott streets was reopened on request of a representative of the company, who

VIEW PROPOSED SITES FOR NEW SCHOOL

Representatives of the city council and school committee looked over several suggested sites for a new school in the South End district late yesterday afternoon. Those who made the trip were Dr. Emma E. Y. Slaughter, James H. Riley, James J. Bruin, and Thomas B. Delaney of the school board and Councilors Frederick A. Sadlier and Maurice J. Lambert. It was the unanimous expression that wherever a new school is built in the section in question it shall be in the neighborhood of the present Edison structure. Several sites examined will be reported back to the council by Councilor Sadlier, chairman of the special committee representing that body.

WAITING ROOM QUESTION STILL IN THE AIR

The matter of a street railway waiting room is as much a matter of conjecture as ever, the conference of city councilors and representatives of the Eastern Massachusetts Co. yesterday afternoon resulting in no progress. The idea of obtaining the ground floor of the present Courier-Citizen building was put forward when Mr. Maurice E. McCormick reported it would be impossible to rent the ground floor without taking over the entire building.

After some discussion the entire matter was left open for further negotiations.

Explained that the petition was forced in order that additional power may be supplied downtown business houses and enterprises. The board did not rescind its action of a previous meeting on the matter, but agreed to take it under advisement until after a view.

A grievance between two employees of the city blacksmith shop involving Joseph Davidson and John Hanford was noted before the board which finally took it under consideration, with the admonition to both men that they get along together a little better in the future.

Engineer John A. Stevens will be asked to meet with the board next week for a discussion of the specifications and plans for the installation of two boilers at the pumping station in West Sixth street.

Milk, eggs, green vegetables, herrings and oatmeal dealt, as a diet, to produce perfect teeth—in theory.

Solid headed pins did not come into general use until 1840 when an American named Wright invented a machine that turned out 140 a minute.

From a standpoint of design, appearance, size and tone, these instruments would infer a very much higher price. They came to us in a phenomenal purchase: in no other way could they be offered at anything like such a low figure as $64.50. The purchasing opportunity is unusual. It will pay you to investigate.

PAWTUCKETVILLE SOCIAL CLUB

A largely attended meeting of the Pawtucketville Social club was held last evening in the quarters of the organization in Moody street with President J. A. Fortier in the chair. Four new members were initiated and six applications for membership were received. It was voted to hold a smoke talk in the rooms of the club on the evening of Oct. 11 and the following committee was appointed to make arrangements for the event: Alphonse Boidin, Modeste Boissonneault and Arthur H. Giroux.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Michael Kracken, an old man residing in this city, was struck by an automobile in Stackpole street this morning and sustained slight injuries. He was treated at St. John's hospital. The driver of the machine was Francis Morin of 162 Chalmers street.

NEW STREET SIGNS

Approximately 100 more new street designation signs have been received by the city engineer and will be placed in position immediately. These signs are finished in silver aluminum with large, raised, black letters.

his mother on Tuesday, Aug. 21, to Boston. After arriving on Commonwealth avenue, she said: "All right, Harold, you need not wait for me." She disappeared down a side street and he saw her no more. He turned about and went home.

Mildred, the daughter, aged 20, saw her mother for the last time on Sunday, Aug. 19. She told her of having splitting headaches and that she was going to see a doctor. She told the daughter of visits to Dr. Swepe in Brockton.

Mrs. Wolschendorf prior to her marriage was Miss Alice Mildred Orcutt of Rockland. Her parents still reside there. She was 43 years of age and had resided in East Bridgewater for a number of years.

The Wolschendorfs are well known residents of East Bridgewater. Mr. Wolschendorf is the owner of Osceola Pines, a pleasure resort situated on Robbins' pond in East Bridgewater and also conducts a store and a lodging house there.

LOCAL RESUME OF DRESS SUITCASE MYSTERY

The events leading up to the announcement of the district attorney today as to the believed identity of the woman in the mystery have for the past 10 days been centered in or near Lowell. State police have made this city their headquarters in practically all of the investigation work which followed the discovery of the dismembered body in two suitcases on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 1 and 2.

The first suitcase was found on Saturday morning by 12-year-old Joseph Davis of East Providence, R. I., who with his father and two brothers had stopped their automobile for luncheon at a point about one-quarter of a mile below Tyngsboro bridge on the boulevard side. This suitcase contained the torso and arms.

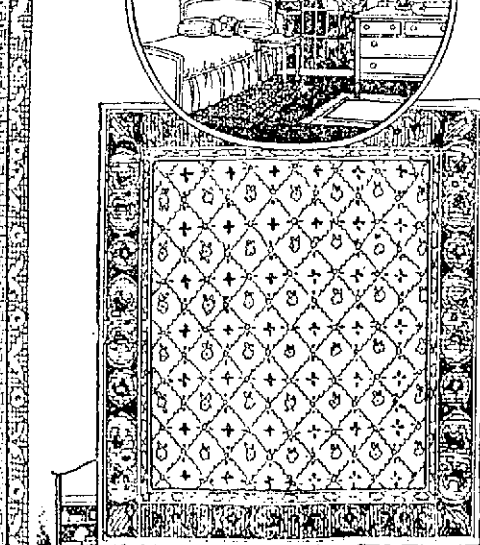

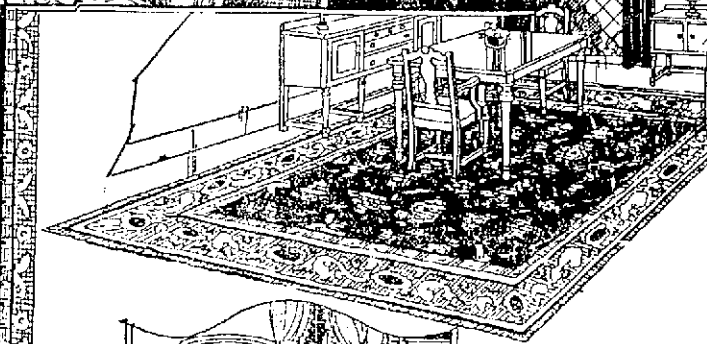

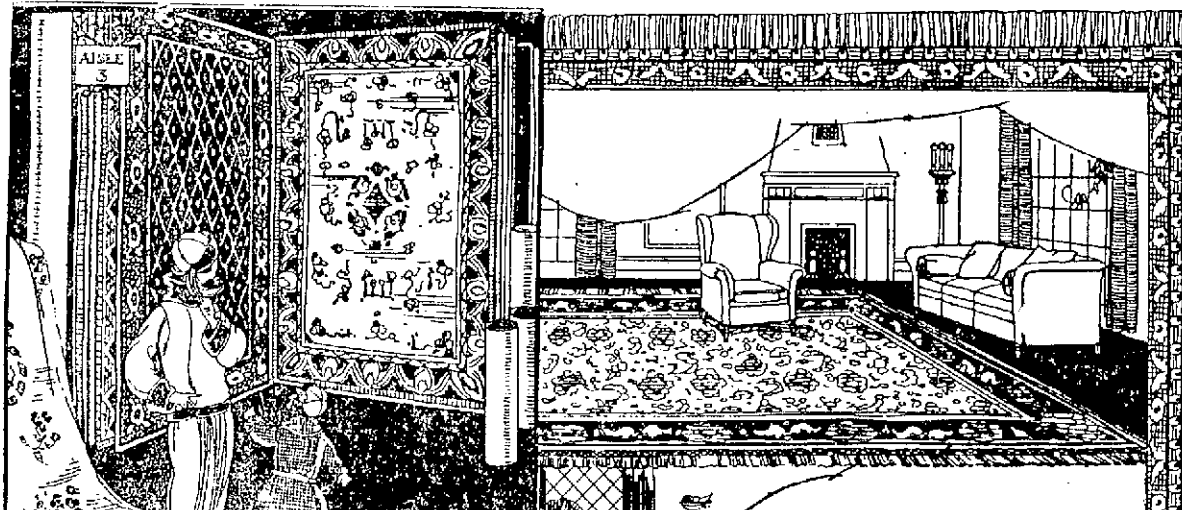

The second suitcase, containing the

legs, was found on Sunday floating in the water on the same side of the stream at a point not far from where the first was found.

Tyngsboro police at once began to drag the river for the head of the woman. The district attorney's office extended the scope of search and sent John D. Robinson of Medford, a professional diver, to the scene. For eight days the diver walked the river bottom, beginning at the bridge and working downstream on both sides of the river as far as Mud brook, so-called.

Although several articles of clothing and pieces of cloth were found in the water and along the banks none developed into clues. Gradually the local aspect of the case faded out and disappeared almost entirely two days ago when the operations of the diver ceased on order of Dist. Atty. Reading. More and more the belief grew that the head of the woman was not in the river, but had been disposed of before the suitcases were thrown into the water at Tyngsboro.

What was considered the most important clue at Tyngsboro was the crash of a fast traveling motor car into the guard rail of the bridge late in the night just before the day when the first suitcase was found. That the suitcases had been carried to that point in this machine was the belief, although it was driven away before any clue as to its identity could be established.

RECONSTRUCTION WORK

Cost of Rebuilding Tokio and Yokohama Will Approximate $5,000,000,000

TOKIO, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) It is estimated that the cost of reconstruction work in Tokio and Yokohama will approximate 10,000,000,000 yen ($5,000,000,000). A nation wide syndicate of bankers has been organized to assist the government in rebuilding the devastated area, and the empire is asked to devote all surplus fund for this purpose.

The banking syndicate announces it will raise the additional money required by reconstruction by local and foreign loans.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Steamship owners today continued their conferences over basic demands made yesterday by Atlantic coast longshoremen's unions from Portland, Me., to Newport News, Va. for a shorter week and more pay, when the present contract expires on Oct. 1.

Finds relief after 32 years of stomach trouble

O'Brien's is the remedy

Proving That Anyone Suffering From Stomach Trouble Can Be Benefited

Even though stomach trouble is tearing down your health, you certainly cannot be any worse off than this man who suffered for 32 years. If you cannot enjoy your meals, if you are run down, if you do not sleep soundly, you need not give up hope.

Read this letter and be convinced that there is a remedy that will help you:

"Just to let you know what O'Brien's for Dyspepsia has done for me: I have been troubled with stomach ailments over 32 years and have been to some of the very best doctors, but could get no relief until a friend advised me to take a bottle of your medicine. After taking three bottles of O'Brien's I can eat everything and am now well. You can refer anyone to me."

(Signed) Edmond Pender, 28 Porter St., Woburn, Mass.

Here's another case where a man had tried many remedies without results. Not until he tried O'Brien's did he secure relief—the first real relief in thirty-two years.

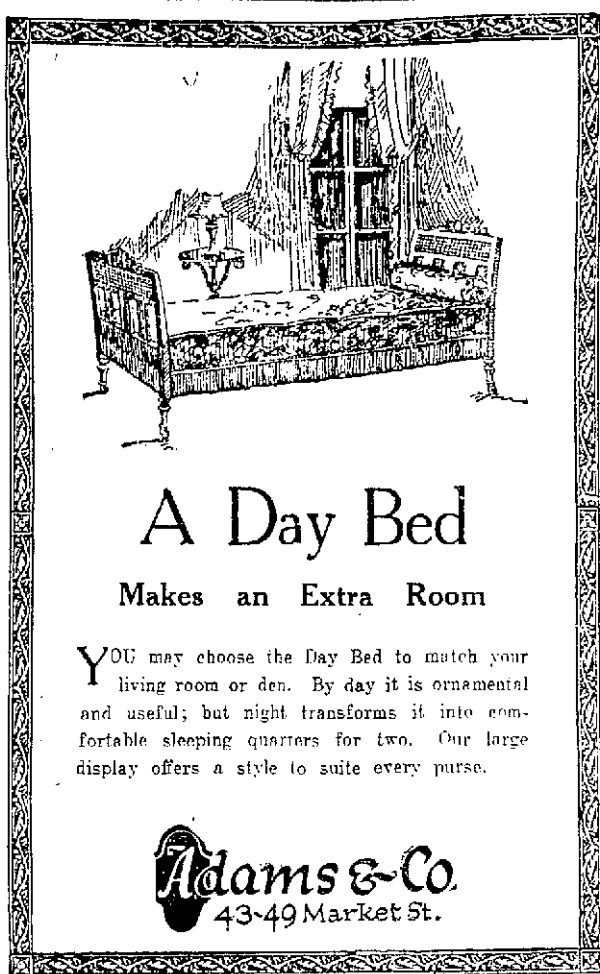

O'Brien's is prepared after the prescription of a Massachusetts doctor. Since 1898 it has been bringing health and happiness to multitudes of sufferers of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heartburn, Colic, Ulcerated Stomach, Gastritis. Sold with a money-back guarantee—no risk involved. Go in line of the druggists listed below for a bottle. Ask that druggist about the helpful ingredients of O'Brien's and he will tell you that it is a safe and sound remedy and just why it will help your case.

LEAGUE HAS GIVEN PROOF OF ITS POWER

GENEVA, Sept. 14.—(By the Associated Press) China came out strongly in support of the League of Nations yesterday. Tching-Loh, minister in France, in an address before the assembly declared the league had given ample proof of its ability to secure the peace of the world and to help the triumph of justice.

This has been accomplished, he declared, because the basis of the league was recognition of the equality of peoples without distinction of race, color or religion. China was convinced that the time would soon come when all the nations of the earth would be represented in the league.

"BOY RAFFLES" IDENTIFIED

BROCKTON, Sept. 14.—Richard W. Bruce, the "boy raffles" sentenced to the Concord reformatory from this city on housebreaking charges, has been identified as Clarke Nicholson of Fort Fairfield, Me.

The boy was an escaped inmate of the Portland state school for boys at South Portland, Me. The Maine authorities state that he escaped twice before.

SEVEN UNDER ARREST

Police Believe They Have Broken Up Gang of Alleged Counterfeiters

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 14.—With the arrest of six men and one woman in Kingston, Pawtucket, Providence and New London, United States secret service operatives here believe that they have broken up a gang which for months has been flooding Rhode Island, Boston and other sections of New England with counterfeit $2, $5, $10 and $20 bills.

Joe Lawrence of Reed street, South Attleboro, was arrested yesterday at the state fair, Kingston, after it is claimed, he passed a $20 bill in Peacedale. Last night, secret service men from Boston and the Pawtucket police arrested Joe Monche, South Attleboro, Mike Mariano, Pawtucket, Julius Alvi, Pawtucket, and Angelo Luchetti, Springfield, V. Wilson of Kingston, trailed Patsy Tomney and Georgiana Klard, both of South Attleboro, from the fair grounds to New London. Police arrested them as they were taking a boat for New York shortly before midnight.

Plague of Red Squirrels

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The Essex county section of the Adirondacks is suffering from a plague of red squirrels. They are so thick in Bouquet valley that they invade pantries, cellars and farm storage buildings. In some towns a bounty is offered to boys and hundreds are being killed. In southern Essex county the squirrels are a serious menace to the apple crop.

DOG SHOW BIG SUCCESS

Lowell Kennel Club Helps Swell the Sullivan Welcome-Home Fund

A tidy sum was netted for the Sullivan Welcome-Home fund by a dog show given in Odd Fellows hall last night by the Lowell Kennel club. Despite the fact that the show was run on short notice there was a large number of entries, especially in the Boston terrier class.

Miss Ethel Stole, a niece of Lowell's channel swimmer, was an exhibitor and won a ribbon with Mike, in the English bull class. The greatest rivalry was in the Boston terrier class and the judges had a problem in making the awards there. Mrs. Kilpatrick's Beatrice R was finally adjudged the best and awarded the special prize amidst a long burst of applause from an interested gallery. The list of winners in the many classes:

Boston terriers, males under 3 months: Dandy Pat, Joseph Avila; 2, Pride of the Hill, Miss Garrity; 3, Rob, A. Nash; 6 to 9 months, Prince.

215 were made. Visits to clients and reference visits totaled 507. Service rendered, recruiting, interpreting, translating, medical and legal aid, and domestic adjustment 323. The cases carried with other agencies in the community were with the municipal charity department, doctors, hospitals, lawyers, the Lowell Guild, the Lowell Social service league, policewomen, probation officers, Red Cross installing 108.

Office Service Cases

In closing the report read: "Magalines have been so full of conditions at Ellis Island and the whole immigration problem you will probably be interested in a local case carried by the International Institute. A Polish man, while visiting his homeland, was robbed of his money, passport and identification papers. His wife appealed to us and we in turn obtained affidavits from local mills stating that this man had been employed by them. These with certain insurance papers were sent to headquarters which made it possible for them to get a duplicate passport issued to Mr. S. Very recently the happy wife came to the office to report her husband's return to this country."

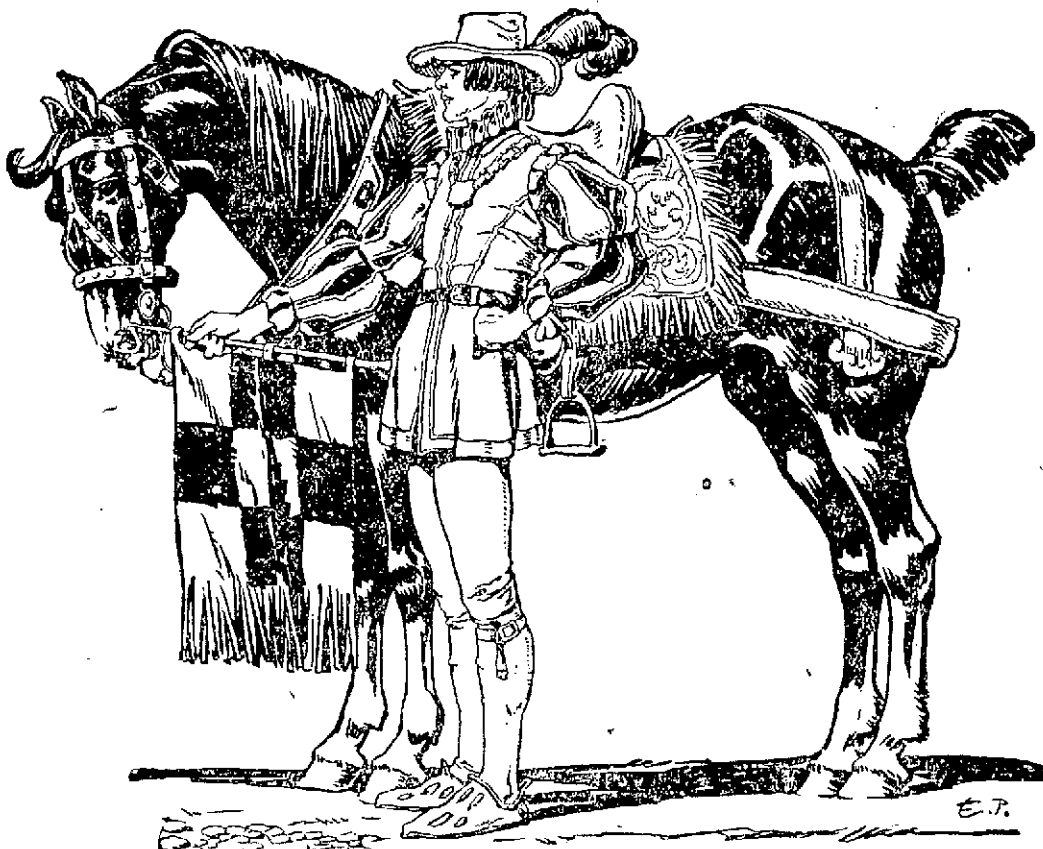

The activities of the physical and girl reserve department during July and August were centered in the new camp recently purchased and improved at Long Sought For pond. Miss Lucille Shirley, girl reserve director, and Miss Mildred Mervins had charge of the camp this year.

The cafeteria showed a financial gain for the summer months. Mrs. Holden, chairman, spoke of the many improvements made there, in including redecorating and the installation of indirect lighting. The home department had a busy summer taking care of large numbers of transients and renting and finding rooms for strangers in Lowell as well as maintaining an information desk.

Fund Drive Next Month

Of general interest to the board of directors was a telegram from national headquarters in New York stating that all Y. W. C. A. workers in Japan have been accounted for as safe. The work and plans of the Y. W. C. A. directors this fall will center around the finance effort which comes in October. The women are now making up the various teams and captains are being chosen. The names of the various teams will be made public at a later date when all teams have been chosen and are ready to enter the drive.

This Little World

By GEORGE BRITT
N.Y.A. Service Writer

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Under one of the signs of the three golden balls on N. Clark street there trades an "uncle" who exhibits all the traditional personal earmarks of his calling—not counting the constant horizontal gestures with his hands. "Uncle" wears a diamond ring which could be described only as a "stunner."

The visitor will be amazed, however, at the apparent modesty which causes the flashing set to be turned inside, and shows only a gold band on the back of the hand. An explanation is requested.

"I talk this way," answers "uncle," waving his extended palms from side to side. "You can't see my diamond if I don't turn him around, can you?"

The world's big news around the latter day week-end was not the Japanese earthquake disaster—not for motor car vacationists. A Chicagoan just returned from an automobile trip to Washington, D. C., and received his first information about the tragedy.

To get away from routine, he had avoided all newspapers. His only news came from conversations with other tourists. There had been no talk about the Dempsey-Firpo fight, none about Greece and Italy. One casual acquaintance told our traveler that some automobile driver had been killed, but forgot his name. Tourist talk was consigned to the subjects of roads, the troubles and traffic cops.

By their lunches ye shall know them. A construction company superintendent here uses that test to sort out his workmen for promotion to foreman. If a man brings his lunch in his pocket, just a pair of sandwiches and an apple, he won't do. He hasn't the energy. But if a workman brings down a big tin bucket, full of food, he is a likely prospect. His machinery is developing power.

One of the best sights in Chicago is a jackknife bridge raised to let a boat pass. Picture the street ahead standing upright for 100 feet or more in the air.

Paris is no more a city of bridges than Chicago. In compensation for their picturesqueness, however, Chicago endures the inconvenience of traffic interruptions whenever the bridges open. More than a dozen bridges are direct gateways to the Loop on the north and west and each can be relied on to give a "stick 'em up" to business 20 or 30 times a day.

If you ever grieved over the raucous voices of the beauties who demonstrate fountain pens, bunion removers and cleaning fluids in drug store windows, let this bring comfort. Chicago just passed through an epidemic of demonstrations, with an alluring salsolite at work behind the glass at every corner. A horn protecting from the window omitted vocal explanation, but the tone was a grinding bark—irreconcilable with the girl's smiling lips. On the word of a reputable Loop druggist you may take it now that the voice is that of a phonograph and the demonstrator merely moves her lips silently to aid the illusion.

THE SOLDIERS' BONUS STATUS

The Washington representative of the Boston Globe has learned that President Coolidge will before long be urged by supporters of the soldiers' adjusted compensation bill to favor that measure in the coming congress. On the ground that the treasury of the United States was in no position to permit the expenditure necessary for a bonus for the World War veterans, the late President Harding took a very strong stand against the bill, as is well known. His veto killed half-hearted action in the last session of congress.

In his speeches in various parts of the country during the past year or two, President Coolidge has not discussed the soldiers' bonus measure so far as known. He has stated, however, that the first duty of the country is to provide adequately for the soldiers and sailors who were disabled, and already hundreds of millions of dollars have been expended for this purpose and the sum is likely to grow greater during the passing years.

Many national legislators now believe that the next congress will put through some kind of a real bonus bill and, if necessary, pass it over a presidential veto. Senator Smoot of Utah wants to have a national sales tax on the statute books to pay for the desired bonus, but even if that action isn't taken, the Utah senator believes a bonus is coming as sure as fact.

Congressman Rogers has predicted that congress will pass a bonus bill in the short session opening in December. Senator Walsh is a strong advocate of the bonus and will favor it with all his eloquence. It is understood that the World War soldiers seeking the passage of an adequate bonus measure, are in the majority against the sales tax suggestion advanced by Senator Smoot and other national politicians. They will be prepared to offer important suggestions when the time comes, of course, and in the meantime they are waiting for some statement from the new president, who has thus far kept very mum about soldiers' bonuses of the national brand and probably will not take a stand on the question until it comes before him for his official sanction.

A BRAVE GOVERNOR

As a result of the activities of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma that state has been placed under martial law by the governor; and evidence has been brought out to show that the Klan has been responsible for a number of floggings administered to citizens, in addition to other offenses indicating that the members of the Klan have been taking the law into their own hands.

Governor Walton now charges that the jury commissioners, the sheriff and the police commissioner have been acting in collusion with the Klan and under its control. He declares that these officers are in the hands of a secret organization and that the question is now the survival of an invisible government or the permanency of legal and visible government. The governor takes a determined stand against the interference with the administration of the law by the secret organization and declares that he will clean up the situation if he has to stand alone and let them shoot at him. That is the only proper stand for the governor to take in dealing with such a situation. He seems to be a man of grit who cannot be intimidated in the discharge of his duty by any power in the state visible or invisible.

A PAST CIVILIZATION

Down in Yucatan, southern Mexico, an army of Indians under the direction of scientists are digging up the palaces and temples of the ancient civilization of the Maya people. They lived more than 2,000 years ago and were sufficiently advanced to produce a race of artists.

The Indians have several years of digging ahead of them. Discoveries fascinating, possibly sensational, will be made. You'll read a lot about this digging job in the newspapers between now and 1926.

Chichen Itza, chief city of the Mayas, was as large as Chicago is today. Thousands of years from now, future scientists may be digging out of mud and sand the remains of Chicago.

Over in England, Queen Mary enjoys her famous dolls' house. It's only eight feet high. But the greatest English architects designed it. English artists painted tiny pictures on its walls. Baroque and other writers wrote miniature books for its library.

This doll's house is to be passed on to future generations as a perfect record of a fine English home in 1922. It has modern plumbing, electrical fixtures, a garage housing a motor car perfect in the last detail—even a wire cellar with real hocks in small bottles.

No matter what may be due up in the Maya ruins of Yucatan, it will seem crude alongside the devices of modern times. A lot of change comes in 2,000 years. And after another 2,000 years the doll's house of Queen Mary will seem as crude as Maya ruins seem today.

IMPORTED BRICKS

A brick weighs quite a bit and should be manufactured as near as possible to the place where it is used in building. So something is radically wrong with our "system" when three million bricks a month are imported into New York city from foreign countries. That is what has been happening this year.

The alleged "shortage of bricks" is a poor excuse. If we can't even make our own bricks, the outlook for America is not bright.

Iron industry is rather sad when it comes to commodities requiring more intricate manufacturing skill. There is no scarcity of bricks but the high price has undoubtedly induced somebody to try the exported article at a lower price.

PRESIDENTIAL TERM

Our president doesn't go into office until four months after election, because in the days of slow communication and stage-coach transportation, it took that long to find out who was elected and get him to Washington.

Now the votes can be counted and the president rushed by airplane to the White House almost overnight. So it is sound sense, the recommendation by American Bar Association that our political system should be changed to put the president and congressmen into office immediately after election.

It is probable that in the near future the new president will be inaugurated early in the year or on the first Monday following the first of January, which would be more business-like than the present arrangement.

CHANGING

The bottom of the Atlantic ocean, 800 miles from the southern tip of Africa, slowly bulges up to make a mountain two miles high under the sea.

This upheaval is gigantic to us, but it is mild compared with the huge size of the earth. It might very easily have taken place on land instead of beneath the waves, and given a large section of our country a terrific shaking. Aconagua, the highest peak of the Andes, is 23,000 feet high, or over four miles. The sea is supposed to have corresponding depths.

We live in uncertainty, figuratively on thin ice. But we plot and plan as if nothing could reach us and we were here on earth for all eternity instead of only a few more years.

CLOWN

Pete Conklin, veteran clown, is said to be the last surviving performer of the original P. T. Barnum circus. He had been clowning for 70 years, having started when he was 13.

Recently Pete washed off his grease paint and powder, and took the first vacation he ever had. His idea of an entertaining vacation was to mingle with and watch the crowds which composed his audience when he was working. An old animal trainer once told us that monkeys have more fun watching circus crowds than the crowds have watching the monkeys.

OUR ILLUSIONS

Regarding that penniless doctor who died in California under the delusion that he was worth five million dollars, as far as he was concerned, the delusion was just as good as having the actual money, and maybe better.

When Ford, the world's richest man, banks a million, he doesn't get half the thrill of the small boy finding a few pennies. Joy and sorrow are states of mind based upon our desires and ambitions. Unhappy the man without illusions. Nature is kind in not letting us know too much.

DIED OF JOY

A French ragspicker, Francois Palleury, inherits a fortune. When told about it, he has such an explosion of joy that he dies of heart failure.

This illustrates the terrific power exerted over the human body by emotions. Recommended especially for people who destroy their health by outbursts of temper. The body is merely a violin played harmoniously or discordantly by the intellect and emotions.

OIL

The oil business, at least temporarily, is in the same lifeboat with wheat farming. Production of crude oil in our country has been exceeding, by 500,000 barrels a day, the amount used. The cause of this huge overproduction is the flood of oil from wells in California. As yet, there is no talk of relief legislation for oil producers.

Lloyd George, former premier of England, is to visit the United States and Canada, but he is not to deliver any lectures for pay. Indeed, it is stated that he will do as little speaking in public as possible. We are inclined to believe, however, that he will make some important utterances in this country and also in Canada. That little Welshman is so much inclined to talk that he could not be compelled to keep silent. Moreover, he is probably going to say something relative to our relations with Europe and particularly with England that will attract world-wide attention.

It is not quite so bad to ring a false alarm of fire as to start a fire, but it is so bad that any person found guilty of the offense will be severely punished if brought into court. It costs a considerable amount of money every time the fire department is called out in response to an alarm. Besides, there is always a liability of accident in which either some person may be injured or else the apparatus may be damaged.

The chamber of commerce had an ideal day for its outing and the members who attended certainly enjoyed the occasion immensely. Such occasions where business men forget their responsibilities and mingle in healthful outdoor recreation are far too rare.

At last there seems to be a tangible clue to the owner of the suitcases found in the Merrimack river containing parts of a woman's body. It is to be hoped that District Attorney Headling will succeed in his efforts to solve this murder mystery.

SEEN AND HEARD

A bottle in the auto is worse than two in the road.

Patent leather hair seems to make the brains underneath skid.

When we learn how happy our country is we will tell you how happy this country should be.

A Thought

On the sands of life sorrow treads heavily, and leaves a print time cannot wash away.—H. Neale.

Choose Your Idiot

It was his first visit to the city. As he stood on the pavement shaking his sides with laughter, he was asked, "What's the fun?" "Pun," said he, "I just look now that these 'fools' (pointing to a watering cart). 'Why, the idiot won't have a drop left when he gets home.'"

The Wonderful Baby

"My dear," said a young wife to her husband, "the baby has been trying to talk again. I think it must have been put in the wrong place." "No," said he, "it started very early, but in a few minutes he was as angry and red in face as he could be. It is wonderful how he takes after you."—Chicago News.

Comine-Out Dress

A countryman visiting London was invited to a "comine-out" dance. During the evening he was asked to introduce a young woman whose evening dress was notable for its extreme economy of material. "Ah," observed the provincial, "I see you are wearing your coming-out dress."

Two "Places"

A certain Englishwoman, having had a few hot words with her husband, had occasion a few hours later to send her servant to get some fish for dinner. "Jane," she said, "go to town as soon as you can and get me a place." "Indeed, I will, ma'am," said Jane, "and I may as well get one for myself, for I can't put up with the master any more than you can."

Eloquent Prosecutor

In one of the mining regions there is a district attorney who is "there" on native prairie, but considerably lacking in education. While prosecuting a dog case at one time he finished up his argument in flowery style, and then, leaning across the rail he made this plea: "All I ask of you gentlemen of the jury, now that you are about to retire, is to note out justice as she deserves to be met."

We Can Use It

James H. Mansfield, city clerk of Northampton, picked up a $20 bill in front of a theatre and thought it must have been dropped by one of the party which had just left a big automobile. He hurried into the lobby of the theatre and gave the bill to a woman in the party, who thought her husband might have dropped it. The next day Mr. Mansfield got a letter from the president of a local writing paper concern, saying that no member of his family had the money and returning the $20 bill.

Just Like the Hired Man

His little stay on the farm began to do the professor good. His method of showing this was to unwork various bits of scientific information. Such, for instance, as the following: "In certain remote regions there is a plant known as the trailing plant. This plant has roots turned of knots. By means of these knots it annually advances about an inch from the place where it was raised." "Reminds me of my hired man going on an errand," promptly declared old Farmer Whiffletree.

Sign Detained Him

A man over 70 years old walked 10 miles from his home to an adjoining town. When he reached his destination he was greeted with great astonishment by his friends who lived there. "You walked all the way?" one of them exclaimed. "I did," replied the old man. "How did you get along?" was the next question. "Oh, first rate," replied the pedestrian. "That is, I did until I came to a sign 'Slow down to 15 miles an hour.' That kept me back a bit."

LOWELL WOMAN MISSING SINCE LAST TUESDAY

Mrs. Mary Adams, wife of William H. Adams of 370 Merrimack street, has been missing from her home since last Tuesday afternoon and the police have been asked to assist in locating her. She is described as being 32 years old, five feet, four inches in height, weighs 90 to 95 pounds, has light brown hair, light skin and blue eyes. When last seen she wore a dress of blue crepe de chine, low black shoes, black silk stockings, fawn colored sweater and salmon-colored hat. She was formerly Miss Mary Wiley.

LADIES' AUXILIARY

Members of St. John's ladies' auxiliary of North Chelmsford will hold a special meeting in St. John's hall this evening. In the early part of the evening a brief business session will be held and later a social time will be enjoyed. Entertainment numbers will be given and refreshments served.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

John J. Giblin, director of the high school regiment band, is optimistic over the outfit's establishing an enviable record in school musical circles this year. The band, composed of 15 pieces, will make its first appearance of the season at the Souza concert next Monday afternoon. The boys will play one selection during the afternoon program. Since the invitation to participate in the concert was accepted some time ago, the director has assembled the boys at various times and rehearsed the number to be presented at the concert. Each of the instrumentalists knows his part to perfection and Souza had better look to his laurels when they begin to harmonize.

Frank E. Batchelder of 43 Gates street is a good loser. In the recent fight for the position of deputy sheriff in Middlesex county, an appointment lately received by Eliezer J. Larochele, Mr. Batchelder was a candidate, although few people knew of the fact. When Mr. Larochele got the appointment he was surprised to receive a communication from Mr. Batchelder congratulating him on his success. "I would surely have won out," said Mr. Batchelder, "if my opponent had been anyone but you."

Automobilists should exercise care in securing spare tires for their machines, says Capt. David Tuttle of the police department. Lately, several complaints have reached the captain's office of tire thefts and each instance the cause was traced to carelessness on the part of the owner. Spare tires should be fastened to the rim or other contrivance on the car and locked. Safety is thus insured.

I refused a start towards a fur coat yesterday. While crossing from the Massachusetts to the Boot mills along the railroad spur that flanks the canal a full-grown skunk disputed the right of way with me. Result, while not disastrous as it might have been, was a clean-cut victory for the skunk.

Despite the fact that I outweighed him many pounds to one and feel sure I have a greater mental dexterity, I permitted him to have his way. There's something of a feeling of gladness comes to you when you let a little fellow have his own way once in a while, you know. You have a greater realization of your powers. What could be more degrading than a big heavyweight knocking a poor lightweight, defenseless skunk around. I couldn't descend to such tactics and besides years ago at school I took some sort of a pledge the S.P.C.A. sent around to the effect I would use forbearance with dumb quadrupeds. I have forgotten the wording but recall the vow in just the nick of time.

SOCCER GAMES TOMORROW

Local soccer football fans will be treated to plenty of this sport tomorrow afternoon when two games will be played at Bunting park. The newly organized Lowell Olympic F. C. will play the fast Arlington mills team of Lawrence in a Merrimack Valley league contest at 2:30, and two fast Portuguese teams will engage in a preliminary game starting at 2 o'clock. The Olympics have signed several new players of prominence and will make the Arlington travel some to land the verdict.

Scientists generally agree that the greatest feature in the evolution of human life was the discovery of the use of fire.

SEA-FEVER

(By a Land Lubber)

It's well known that I've often planned To start out for some foreign strand, Across the waters smooth and blue, Yes, traveling's the thing to do, I think an ocean trip is grand.

For when the sea is calm and bland And on the steamer's deck the band Is playing melodies to you, It's swell!

However, on the other hand, When she begins to rill, I land Down in my berth. My face in hue Is sickly green. I'm done, I'm through! The ocean's fine but I can't stand It's swell!

FOUND TURTLE..

FAR FROM HOME

A turtle weighing in the vicinity of 45 pounds was found yesterday by Agent Harrison Baker of the Humane society in the rear of 515 Bridge street and was removed to the society's headquarters for safe keeping. How the turtle got so far away from the river is a mystery as turtles of this size usually live in or near the river and hardly ever are found more than a hundred yards from the water.

The turtle created considerable interest among the people of Centralville and Agent Baker's removal of the turtle was mourned as several wanted to take the "thing" and have turtle soup for dinner. Agent Baker returned the turtle to the river today.

Fair Femininity Too Forgets Styles, Coiffures, Clubs and Household Duties—Baseball Game Provides Succession of Screams—Standing Broad Smile Contest Stands Out as Great Success—Succulent Bivalves Victims of Tremendous Onslaught as Happy Day Comes to Close—Red Cheeks of Happy Roisterers Vie With Boiled Lobsters in Effort to Produce Healthiest Tint—Best Time in History of Local Chamber

"Business as usual" was resumed today in Lowell, the "big fellows" of our business and professional life having successfully "blown off the season's steam" at the monster clam bake and outing held by the chamber of commerce and Rotary club at Martin Luther grounds yesterday afternoon.

Staid executives, learned lawyers, dignified doctors, sweet and dainty misses and maidens all threw their customary reserve to the winds and got together for a hilarious "rag" that transferred Martin Luther Grove to a veritable playground for grown-ups.

The day was perfect for the occasion and all hands entered wholeheartedly into a program that will go down in history as making one of the greatest events of its kind ever held in Middlesex county or out of it.

Fair femininity was present in abundant numbers and forsook frills and demure to join with the rest in putting over a big time. The baseball game, carded as the banner attraction of the day, lived up to expectations.

Its success, however, was shared with the other attractions, all of which proved highly popular and amusing. There were no wall-flowers or stand-offs at yesterday's good time. Everybody jumped in or was dragged into the hilarity of the occasion and nothing was left undone to make the affair one that will be long remembered and often talked of.

The light luncheon that preceded the afternoon's program put everyone on edge for the day's sports, which were entered into with a gusto that surpassed the most optimistic expectations. There was not an idle minute in an afternoon that passed so quickly one hardly realized that it was gone until the call for clams was sounded over the field.

As the big bake was uncovered and all the various little delicacies expected to convert the most capricious of cures were served, hilarity reached its summit. The breaking-up of the party, which followed shortly after the breaking-up of the big red lobsters, was one of genuine disappointment that such a wonderful day should end so soon.

Red cheeks of the fair sex, gained through the excitement of the afternoon's sports, rivaled the complexion of the lobsters which were dragged forth from the steaming rockpile as the bake got underway. Everyone was having the time of his or her life and all hands are already planning on being on deck again next year.

Luncheon First Event

Upon arrival at the grounds Major Walter R. Jones and Edward W. Gallagher, assistant secretary of the chamber, directed the unloading and parking machines and this was completed in very few minutes and with no confusion whatsoever. The first event on the program was a luncheon and the pleasure-seekers hastened to the veranda of the clubhouse to lay in the necessary strength-producing foods to furnish the energy necessary for an afternoon of sport.

A baseball game between the chamber of commerce and the Rotary club was the first event on the sporting program and was won by the chamber team by a score of 13 to 5. "Bob" Thompson and Harry Pitts formed the battery for Rotary as the game began. Before the first session had ended the chamber team had piled up three runs. Bartel pitched for the Chamber and Paul Doherty wore the mit and mask. Bartel was effective and his support was steady so the Rotary team only garnered one run in the inning.

Pitts Makes Great Attempt

In the first half of the second inning, Bob settled down and his team-mates pushed across by the chamber men. Umpire "Charlie" Hobson called the considerably better than they had in the first. The Chamber team got one run across before the third man was out. A feature of this inning was Harry Pitts' great but fruitless attempt to get a foul fly. Rotary got to Bartel in the second for two runs in their half and the score stood 4 to 3. The third was a banner inning for the Chamber. Bob Thompson weakened and only by a major effort could he pitch the ball over the plate. Many of his throws hit the ground in front of the plate. After six runs had been pushed across by the chamber men, Umpire "Charlie" Hobson called the third out at first base and was immediately the center of a howling mob of Chamberites. He stuck to his decision, however, as a major league umpire would, and the Chamber's big inning was over. Bartel had perfect control in the last half of the inning and the Rotarians were given the first gooseegg in the box score.

Hobson Essays Pitcher's Role

"Ted" Hobson had been warming up while his brother Rotarians were at bat and at the beginning of the fourth the boss umpire, "Ed" Fisher, announced that Ted would pitch and

It was charged the manager of the Rotarians was not at all sure that Ted could carry on for the remaining two innings and was keeping Bob Thompson in the game so that he could be called back if necessary. Tanlac Was a Revelation Says Roxbury Citizen

"Tanlac is wonderful and I can't begin to tell how I appreciate what it has done for me," says Walter H. Newcomb, 5 Marshfield street, Roxbury, Mass.

"When I began taking Tanlac I was simply a nervous wreck and completely broken down. I couldn't sleep and eating was just about out of the question. I went down from 156 to 123 pounds in no time. Actually, I was so weak, nervous and irritable I couldn't stand the chatter of my little son."

"Finally my wife took matters in her own hands, got me some Tanlac and it has been a revelation to me. I have taken only three bottles and am now physically fit as I ever was. I will stand by Tanlac as long as I live."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

SALVATION ARMY TO HELP SULLIVAN FUND

The local Salvation Army has received a call from Miss Booth, the commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army in the United States, asking its cooperation in raising a fund for the Japanese relief. The Salvation Army has been working for quite a number of years in Japan and its representatives there are in touch with the conditions and needs of the stricken people. In her appeal, Miss Booth says, "Immediately the news reached me I called to Japan the abounding sympathy of all American salvationists and friends, and whilst waiting news as to the exact nature of the relief that is most needed, I have cabled several thousand dollars, confident that all our many friends would wish me to act with the greatest speed possible in such an unprecedented emergency."

Commander Booth is anxious that the general public should again come to the army's assistance and give as in times past to help this organization to do what is expected of it in this great disaster.

Lowell is asked to contribute $400 and Commander Abbott, officer in charge of the local Salvation Army, is planning to put the kettle which are used for Christmas collections on the streets tomorrow to gather the contributions of any Lowell people desiring to give to this worthy cause. The work the army is planning will in no way duplicate that of the Red Cross, but in many places will supplement it. Any person desiring to help can send in any contributions to the Salvation Army, making checks payable to Mr. R. W. Black, treasurer for Japanese relief.

Will Build Home for Workers

names were entered on the payroll. An insight into the company's attitude is shown by the recent voluntary increase granted the men.

Effective next week, the pay of skilled mechanics will be advanced to 76 cents an hour, this rate being retroactive to Aug. 1. The extra pay day to make up the retroactive balance due will provide a substantial "bonus" for the workers. The back pay difference coming in a lump is expected to prove quite a morale booster.

Striking men maintain the new wage raise is offered more as bait to entice them back to the shops but are sticking out just the same. The greater part have some odd jobs that they are working on that keeps the wolf from the door. While the wage return is not at all to be compared to what they would draw at their trade they are keeping out of debt and maintaining a solid front.

Under the raise, wages reach the highest peak since the war. Despite the heavy wages the railroad officials know that the men, especially the better class of them, are unsatisfied with their home life. It is with a view to eliminating this sore spot and making the task of filling another man's job more inviting that the corporation is said to be planning to erect homes.

With another winter approaching and the rolling stock not by far in equal condition to what it was in 1922 and 1921 the railroad naturally, in deference to public sentiment, must plan to keep its lines open and its equipment able to maintain some semblance of schedules.

With the most competent shopmen in the country not at their trades this is a difficult job. It would be more difficult should any trouble in the ranks of the "replacement workers" be permitted to reach any growth. It is to still such murmurings of dissatisfaction, union men maintain, that the housing project is receiving such close attention.

MEETING TONIGHT

OF EX-NAVY MEN

A meeting of ex-navy men has been called for tonight in the high school annex by Horatius D. Leggat. The purpose of the meeting is to form a club of ex-navy men and to make plans for an outing at Martin Luther grounds in the near future.

If the ex-navy men come out in large enough numbers to make the formation of a club and the holding of an outing a success, the officials of the first naval district in Boston will furnish boats and other naval material necessary to make a regatta possible in connection with the outing.

Ex-navy men are invited to attend tonight's meeting as the number present will decide whether the organization of a club is possible.

the first half or the fourth, but the Rotarians were able to get but one run across the home plate and the score stood 10 to 4 at the start of the final inning.

Chamber Finally Declared Victor

Hobson's shoots were not at all mysterious to the chamber in the fifth and three men crossed the plate. The score was 13 to 4 in favor of the chamber of commerce when the Rotary team came to bat for the last time and grim determination was written in the face of each of the Rotarians—the game must be tied or won. Four runs were pushed in and three men remained on base when the third out was called. The chamber won, 13 to 3, the final analysis shows.

The Lineups Follow:

Rotary club: Robert Thompson p, Harry Pitts c, H. Hutchins Parker 1b, Paul Murphy 2b, Ted Hobson ss, Paul A. Read 3b, Dr. Herbert E. Davis cf, Fred Walter Jr., W. Hinko Irvine rf.

Women Throw the Hammer

The hammer throw for women came next on the program. The hammer was an inflated bag and the winners were those who best judged the wind currents and got distance. Shirley Harris threw the bag the longest distance and Mrs. Fred Walter was a close second.

A golf contest for men and women followed. The game was to drive a golf ball from a rough lie into a wash tub 25 yards distant. The golfers among the crowd were broadly smiling for they well knew that the prize would go to one of their number. Fortunately they stepped up to the mark and took three shots at the tub and missed miserably. After eight men had tried and failed, Ted Hobson took up a club and landed his second shot fair in the tub. He was the only one who succeeded and was declared the fancy golfer of the crowd.

Two Novelty Races

A pipe race for men followed. Pipes were placed at first base, tobacco at second and matches at third, the prize going to the one who first made the circuit of the bases and crossed home plate with his pipe going. Trazel Pavrean finished first and Royal P. White second.

A needle race for women came next. This was similar to the pipe race, needles being placed at first, thread at second, and a button and a piece of cloth at third. To complete the race one had to have the button sewed on to the cloth securely. Mrs. Harry Chandler proved to be the faster runner and steamstress. Mrs. Willard Parker was second.

The 25-yard dash for women was won by Shirley Harris with Mrs. Harry Chandler second and Mrs. Fred Walter third.

Tape Walk Affords Fun

Edwin Mellen and Ted Hobson were the only ones to complete the tape walk. This contest was exceptionally difficult as it consisted of walking a tape for 25 yards while looking at the tape through the wrong end of a pair of high-power binoculars.

The fat men's race was the closest contest of the day. William Woods was first and Frank Bachelder and Ray Hinkley tied for second. In the run-off for second Bachelder had a good lead when he fell. Unintended by his fall he rolled under the line race as Hinkley hit the tape and another tie was declared. Hinkley was winded when the third heat was run and Bachelder gained second honors.

The baseball throw for women was won by Miss Adelaide Cheney with Miss Helen Daly second and Shirley Harris third. The shoe race for men was won by Charles D. Garmon with Harry Pitts second.

The Standing Broad Smile

The standing broad smile for women was a novelty contest that created considerable interest. Each contestant's mouth was measured by Allan Dumas as she smiled her broadest and Mrs. Arthur Osterman was declared the winner. Mrs. R. E. Hard was a close second, only a quarter of an inch behind the winner.

The final sport contest of the day was a tug of war between the Chamber and Rotary baseball teams.

Although the Rotary team had the weight advantage, Commerce succeeded in moving the heavyweights several feet before time was called.

Throughout the afternoon, Althen's 35th Field Artillery band entertained with pleasing selections.

Grand Old Clambake

The affair was brought to a close with a clambake, which proved to be of the same high quality as had been everything else connected with the outing. The sea-moss was pulled off the dikes at 5:30 o'clock and within a few minutes clam chowder and steamed clams were being served. Lobster, corn, and a vegetable salad followed. By the time that ice cream and cake was ready most appetites were satisfied and the dessert went begging. Immediately following the bake the party broke up and the return trip was begun with everyone satisfied that the affair was the best ever.

Credit for the success of the affair goes to the outing committee of the chamber, consisting of Alvah H. Weaver, chairman; Allan Dumas, Edward W. Daly and Hon. James B. Casey; to the active officers of the chamber.

George F. Wells, secretary-manager and Edward W. Gallagher, assistant secretary, and to Roy Parchert, secretary of the Rotary club.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Physician's Discovery Safely Reduces It To Normal and Dizzy Spells Disappear

If your blood pressure is too high you cannot pass a life insurance examination. Perhaps you don't know whether you have this trouble or not, but if you have occasional dizzy spells, shortness of breath, pains in the head, hot flashes, are nervous, moody or don't sleep well, your blood pressure is probably higher than it ought to be even if you don't realize it.

Norma, the prescription of a Buffalo physician, reduces high blood pressure and when this result is accomplished all the ailments caused by this abnormal condition will quickly disappear. A. W. Dumas & Co., and reliable druggists everywhere have a steady demand for NORMA—it is purely vegetable and contains nothing harmful. Mail orders filled C.O.D. by Norma Sub. Inc., Albany, N. Y.—Adv.

WARD JURY NOT YET COMPLETED

38 Veniremen Ready for Examination and Panel of 75 Ordered to Report

Five Jurors Remained to Be Chosen When Trial Was Resumed Today

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Thirty-eight veniremen were ready for examination today and a panel of seventy-five additional talesmen have been ordered to report Monday in an effort to complete selection of a jury to try Walter S. Ward for the murder of Clarence Peters, ex-sailor. Five jurors remain to be chosen.

Of 44 talesmen examined yesterday, only one was accepted by both sides, and when he stepped into the box, Mrs. Ward, who saw her husband in court for the first time since he was committed to jail five weeks ago, lost her pulse and went. Mrs. Ward's appearance was unexpected as she had been at Atlantic City all summer and was said to have been suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Counsel for the defense said he would not decide until after the prosecution has completed its case whether he would call Mrs. Ward as a witness for the defense. Attorney General Freeman probably will call her for the state to testify at what hour Ward returned to his home in New Rochelle on the morning after the shooting of Peters. The law exempts her from testifying against her husband as to any confidences he may have made to her.

Each side is allowed 30 peremptory challenges. At the close of yesterday's session, with seven of the 12 jurors in the box, the state had used 10 and the defense nine. Ward appeared to have regained his confident mien.

While the jury was being sought before Justice Wagner, the extraordinary grand jury that reinvestigated Ward for first degree murder continued its investigation on the floor below. The grand jury, it was reported, caught in the examination of 10 witnesses, evidence of why certain witnesses, wanted at the trial, were outside the jurisdiction. The grand jury adjourned until Monday when Mrs. Ward will be called. She was subpoenaed yesterday on her way to lunch.

NATIONAL LAWN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—With the field in the tournament for the national lawn tennis championship reduced to the four players who have provided most of the thrills at the Germantown Cricket club during the week, unusual performances were looked for by the spectators today in the final matches. Three Americans and one foreigner will fight it out for the right to enter the final round tomorrow. The fourth round of R. Norris Williams, captain of this year's American Davis cup team, provided one of the most startling upsets of the tournament. Brian J. C. Norton, the agile little South African, who by his defeat in times winner of the national championship. In one of the semi-finals Tilden yesterday defeated Manuel Alonso of Spain, Spanish player, who is at the top of his game.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (By the Associated Press).—Two gladiators of the new world are to meet in New York tonight, ready for a battle to decide whether the fistic championship of the earth shall remain in North America, or cross the equator and become the property of the Argentine republic.

These warriors, Jack Dempsey of the United States, present holder of the heavyweight championship, and Luis Angel Firpo, the scowling chieftain of South America's slugs, will step into a brilliantly lighted arena at the Polo grounds at 9.30 o'clock tonight. They will be watched by a crowd of more than 30,000 persons, some of whom have come all the way from Buenos Aires to see the "battle of the continents."

"Gate" Exceeds $1,000,000

More than $1,000,000 will have been collected by Tex Rickard, who has arranged the details for the struggle. Half of this amount will go to the fighters, 37 1/2 per cent to Dempsey and the remaining 12 1/2 per cent to Firpo. The rest goes to Mr. Rickard. Some of the spectators have paid $25.00 for seats; others will pay $3.00 when the gates are opened at 4.30 o'clock. Still others have paid $15.00 to speculators, it was said.

The actual time Dempsey and Firpo will be fighting each other cannot exceed 15 minutes. The bout is scheduled to last 15 rounds of three minutes each. Most experts and enthusiasts predict that it will not last nearly that long. Indeed, some have predicted that there will be less than three minutes of fighting. Most of the predictions of this sort came from those who counted on a furious attack from the start with the result that Firpo will be knocked down during the first round and unable to rise before the

CORNETS OF LYNN TO PLAY SILESIA TEAM

Manager Barney Gilmore of the Silesia Mills team has made a ten-strike in securing the famous Lynn Cornets to come to North Chatham on Sunday afternoon to play his mill team.

The Cornets have been playing together for the past several years and are regarded as one of the strongest independent teams in the country. Manager Morrissey of the Cornets is one of the cleverest handlers and developers of players in these parts and already he has sent a good many players up to the big show. It is the ambition of his players to become members of his team. They realize his ability and his acquaintance with major league managers and owners and hence a chance with the Cornets is considered a stepping stone to a place under the big tent.

The visitors will come here with their full strength and in order to be prepared to give the Lynn club a battle Gilmore has opened negotiations with several star performers, who he hopes to have in his lineup Sunday. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

JOHNNY BROWN WINS DECISION

Great Rally in Final Rounds

Gives Newport Boy Verdict Over Romeo Roche

Johnny Duffy Stops Kid Cullen in Semi-Final—Al Corbett in Second K. O.

After trailing his opponent for five rounds Newport Johnny Brown staged a whirlwind rally in the last half of the battle and his spurt brought him the decision over Romeo Roche of Holyoke in the main event of the Moody club card at the Crescent rink last night.

Roche, a newcomer to Lowell, won the hearts of the large audience because of his clean fighting and aggressiveness even in the face of defeat. Brown was better handled than Roche and after five rounds of attempting to land telling blow with his win left, which was nicely blocked by Roche, his hands were paralyzed upon him to use his right for effective punching and to hold off Roche with his long left.

The fight kept the crowd on its toes every minute. In the first round Brown waded in with the evident intent of landing a telling left and finishing the fight up inside of a few minutes. Roche was evidently wise to Brown's left for he came in under it on several occasions and landed lefts to the mid-section and right uppercuts that had Brown backing up against the ropes and endeavoring to protect both his mid-section and chin.

The second round was another hotly contested session with Roche's lefts and rights landing with careful accuracy and the crowd was closed in this round and his face was livid from the punches he had taken. Towards the last of the round Brown carried the fight to Roche, who covered up and rested.

The third, fourth and fifth were much the same as the first two. Several times Brown's hands were up and Roche was striking on and over several occasions it seemed as though he must go down. He was tough, however, and took the punches well, and held on to the ropes.

In the sixth the crowd held for a knockout by Roche, but they were in for a surprise that seemed impossible. Brown who had gone to his corner apparently beaten in the fifth round, and mixed it up with Roche and after landing several sweet rights had Roche groggy. A knockout by Brown seemed possible but Roche proved his catlike flinching. In the seventh Roche rested while Brown landed several that counted with the judges, but "didn't hurt a bit."

The eighth and ninth were Brown's. Johnny carried the fight all the way, but had only a slight edge for Roche was striving to land a right uppercut and took all that came his way for good and all. He landed several and inflicted severe punishment to Brown's face but Brown kept coming in with his right and holding off and mauling his man with the long left.

Again in the tenth Brown came back fast and had Roche groggy. The decision went to Brown and both men received a hearty ovation as they stepped from the ring.

Roche weighed in at 151 and his opponent at 129 1/2.

Johnny Duffy of Lowell showed Kid Cullen of Nashua how to fight in the semi-final, winning in the fifth when Cullen's seconds threw in the towel. Duffy was up to his usual trim and surprised Cullen in the first with his ability to move just as fast if not faster than the Nashua kid. Every round went to Duffy and Cullen was sick from the blows to the stomach when the towel floated into the ring.

Battling Ske of Boston took a terrible beating from Sabor Munnos of Chelmsford in the second round preliminary. The batter was not in very good condition and took an unmerciful wallop, but refused to give up. Neither of the boys knew much about boxing and the soldier's funny shifts and elbow and eye action caused considerable merriment.

The first preliminary between Al Corbett of Boston and Silent Kenney of Boston went but two rounds. Kenney's seconds calling it off before a real knockout could be scored. The victory marked Corbett's second consecutive bago triumph in this city.

Next week's bouts promise to be a great drawing card. Three right-steady bouts between boxers well known here will open the show and a ten round scrap between Young Martin Philberry and Woburn Jack Dillon should prove to be one of the greatest attractions of the season.

AT LEAST 80,000 TO SEE FIGHT

Second Biggest Crowd on Record Expected at Polo Grounds Tonight

Much More Than One Million Dollars' Worth of

Tickets Sold for Fight

NEW YORK, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press).—When Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, and Luis Angel Firpo collide in their scheduled 15-round contest at the Polo grounds tonight, Tex Rickard, promoter of the match, expects the second largest crowd that ever witnessed a glove contest to be in attendance.

The Polo grounds, home of the New York Giants and one of the biggest baseball plants in the country, will be converted into a massive arena, with a seating capacity of approximately 80,000. The playing field will be covered with temporary seats around the ring, which will be erected in the center of the diamond.

The greatest crowd that ever saw a boxing contest gathered in the nine bowl on Boylston Thirty Acres in Jersey City, N. J., July 2, 1921, to see Dempsey defend his title against Georges Carpentier. Close to 50,000 persons were jammed into the great spaces of the bowl that day. The total receipts approximated $1,600,000.

Claims were made that this figure was exceeded at the recent Villard-Rickard fight in the Jersey City arena. Rickard estimating the attendance at 100,000, but revised figures showed that the paid attendance was only 75,000 and the receipts $423,920.

The championship bout between Dempsey and Villard at Toledo on July 4, 1915, although seen by only 19,650 spectators, drew a sale of $452,522. This enormous rate was made possible because of the high price of the tickets. Ringside seats sold for $50, while the cheapest benches brought $10 each.

The bouts held in the Yankee stadium May 12 of this year for the benefit of the New York Milk Fund attracted 62,000 persons, who paid $250,000. In the principal bouts, Firpo knocked out Jack McAuliffe 11, while Fred Fulton lost to Jack Demmitt on a foul.

The first of the two contests between Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, and Lew Tindler, held at Rogers' Thirty Acres in 1922, was witnessed by 15,000 with a gate of $367,552. But all records for a lightweight championship were broken when the same men met in the Yankee stadium two months ago. It was estimated that about 60,000 persons paid close to $400,000 to see Leonard defend his title.

The famous battle of Reno, Nev., of July 4, 1910, in which Jack Johnson, negro holder of the heavyweight title, beat Jim Jeffries into submission in 14 rounds, was witnessed by 20,000 persons. Unusually high prices sealed the gate receipts to $270,775.

The fourth of July battle between Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons, fought in the town of Shelby, Mont., July 4, was perhaps the biggest financial failure in the history of championship prize fights. Due to the last minute change of events, when the guarantee due Dempsey was not forthcoming, raising the rumors that the battle would not be held, attendance was held to approximately 12,000 with estimated receipts of $294,157. Dempsey's promised share alone was more than this sum.

Other famous prize battles that attracted large crowds, with corresponding gate receipts, follow:

SUN TO GIVE FIGHT PIRATES DIVIDE RETURNS TONIGHT

Realizing the tremendous interest in the "battle of the continents" at the Polo grounds, New York tonight, when Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will step into the ring to defend his title against Luis Angel Firpo, the "Wild Bull of the Pampas," The Sun has made special arrangements to give fight followers a detailed account of the fistic classic.

The Associated Press, of which The Sun is a member, will have a corps of reporters right at the ringside. Expert writers and photographers will be there to send out a blow by blow description of the fight. A special wire from the "battle grounds" will run to The Sun office, where every detail will be received and announced by megaphone just as it occurs over in the "big town."

WHITE SOX MAKE PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR

CHICAGO, Sept. 14. The opportunity to get a cut in the world series money by finishing either second or third, is the cause of a great many clubs falling in line to join the White Sox in the fall. As long as the club figures inside the money, the young players who report get little more than a chance to warm the bench.

The Chicago White Sox is the first club to start to make plans for 1924. The failure of the Sox to show has been a big disappointment to owner Philip K. Wrigley and Manager Gleason. Feeling that 1923 holds no further possibilities, the Sox management has decided to try out all the available material this fall.

Every day finds one or more recruits reporting to the Sox and immediately upon showing promise they will get a chance to see action.

So far the two recruits tried out by Manager Gleason have done very well. Glenwaver, in his first start against the Boston Red Sox, scored a 2 to 1 shutout, allowing only four hits. Gleason's catcher who just arrived, has been out into the game to give Ray S. Balk a rest. The brilliant South has reacted the stage in his baseball career where he has just so many more good games left in his system, and there seems to be no sound reason why they should be regarded in contests that mean nothing to the Sox.

Gleason has the actions of Salk, and according to the latest players on the Chicago club has a fine chance to make good. He is an expert mechanic, has a wonderful arm and looks like a fair pitcher.

PIRATES DIVIDE DOUBLE BILL

Reds Defeat Cubs and Race

for Second Place is Tightened Up

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Pirates broke even with the Robins in Pittsburgh yesterday, losing the first game of a double header, 7 to 4 and winning the second 6 to 3. The Giants, who were idle, retained their lead of five games, while the Cincinnati Reds won a convincing victory, 5 to 3, in a 10-inning struggle, advanced to a position only one-half a game behind the Pirates.

THIRD GAME OF BIG INTER-CITY SERIES

The Lowell C. M. A. C. and the Lawrence Independents will meet for the third game of the inter-city championship series at Alumni field, formerly Spaulding park, tomorrow afternoon and a great diamond battle is in prospect. In the two games already played Lowell has been victorious and Louis Lord, declares his team is out to make it three in a row, and thus clean up the title series. Manager McDonough, "the boy millionaire," however, plans to make a desperate effort to land the game and will send Val Hewitt, the classy pitcher, into the box in an attempt to halt the Lowellites.

A great crowd of Lawrence fans will come to Lowell to cheer their favorites on to victory. Needless to say the Lowell team will have its quota of supporters on hand. The game will start at 2 o'clock.

CANDIDATES LIMBERING UP AT TEXTILE

The first practice of the season was held by the Textile school candidates yesterday, but only a few were out, as the majority of the 60 odd fellows who have entered their names as candidates have not yet reported at school. Only a light work out was held yesterday, but as soon as the majority of men are on hand practice sessions will be held twice daily.

Arthur Ball, who coached the team last season, will again be in charge and under his tutelage it is expected that a strong eleven will be developed. There are about 20 veterans from last year's eleven, not all regular men, but men who have had experience in several games. And this number will form a strong nucleus for Coach Ball. An attempt is being made by Coach Ball to again secure the services of John Danahy as assistant coach. Danahy was a big help last year. He is a former All-New England and Maine and knows football, and how to instill his knowledge to others.

Capt. "Pop" Olson has been keeping himself in condition during the summer and he is already in the shape to start the season. A candidate for guard from Methuen who tips the scales at 236 pounds is part of the promising material that reported yesterday. This fellow has had some experience on the Methuen high school eleven. Villa, one of last year's veterans, who tips the scales at 200 pounds, was also out yesterday.

Although Coach Ball will not make any prediction, he looks for a most successful year. In view of the fact that he has 20 veterans to start with, and because of the previous records of some of the new men.

THREE MORE JURORS FOR BUMPER APPLE CROP WARD MURDER TRIAL

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The eighth, ninth and tenth tentative jurors were chosen in two hours this morning for the trial of Walter S. Ward for the murder of Clarence Peters.

Mrs. Ward was in the courtroom when her husband was brought in by deputies. She greeted him with a smile and took a seat behind him. Later Ward handed her a letter he had just received. She read it and passed it on to Ward's brother, Ralph. It was reported the letter was from George S. Ward, father of the prisoner.

Commercial Crop of New England Estimated at 1,582,000 Barrels

WAKEFIELD, Sept. 14.—The commercial apple crop of New England is estimated from reports of condition Sept. 1 at 1,582,000 barrels by the bureau of agriculture economics of the federal department of agriculture. It is announced by the New England Crop Reporting Service. The figure for last year was 1,060,000, and the average for the five years from 1918 to 1922, inclusive, was 1,153,000.

Quality on the whole is good, ranging from poor to excellent, the report continues, and the fruit is coloring quite well. Size is fair to good and would have been better with a little more rain. McIntosh is the leading fall variety, gravenstein and weathly close seconds, while baldwin leads in winter apples with greening, Bon D'Avril, spies and others not far behind.

TO INVESTIGATE THE JANINA MURDERS

PARIS, Sept. 14. (By the Associated Press).—The international commission which will investigate the Janina murders leaves for Albania today under orders to conduct as vigorous an inquiry as possible.

A step which the council of ambassadors believes "will put an end to the situation created by the assassination of the Italian delegates," was taken at last evening's meeting of the council, when Italy agreed to evacuate Corfu before the end of this month, possibly by Sept. 27.

The ambassadors are also understood to have decided that if on the day set for the evacuation the commission of inquiry thinks Greece has not done everything in her power to bring the assassins to justice, Italy shall receive the deposit of 50,000,000 lire made by Greece under the terms of the settlement decided upon by the council.

GENEVA, Sept. 14.—Discussing published reports that American bankers might subscribe part of a possible billion dollar loan to Germany, which would be arranged by the League of Nations, financial authorities of the league said today that the league could only take up the financial reconstruction of Germany if asked to do so by the interested nations, especially Germany.

Federal coal commission reports to President Coolidge that operation of coal industry is possible to insure dependable supply of fuel to the public, adequate wages to the miners and reasonable return to the operators.

FATHER FOUND TWO-YEAR- OLD BOY VERY SICK

Was Constipated, Thin, No Appetite, Had Swollen Lips, Stomach Pains

A hardy woodsman and enthusiastic fisherman of Maine, has a very interesting record to report. He writes: "As a boy, thirty-seven years ago, I began to take Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. Once after six months hauling logs, I came out of the woods and found my two-year-old boy very sick. He was thin, had no appetite, had swollen lips, pains in stomach, was suffering from constipation for months.

"I had not been in the house an hour when an elderly lady—a good neighbor—came in and told my wife to get a bottle of Dr. True's Elixir, saying she had seen numbers of similar cases which it had relieved.

"My boy was given a half dozen doses of Dr. True's Elixir, when he passed a lot of worms and right away began to show improvement; he began soon to eat with a relish, play around and look healthy. He did not have to take a full bottle, and in later years, whenever he got off his feet, a few doses would straighten him out quick.

"When I got constipated, a couple of teaspoons of Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, fix me O.K.

"My son is grown up now and has a family of six children, and he has practically raised his family on Dr. True's Elixir. The children go out and get hold of something not good for them. It's hard to watch all the children, and so when they eat something they shouldn't and get sick, Dr. True's Elixir is given and the family is put in good shape again.

"I have read in the papers you have to take a half a dozen bottles of some remedies, but you don't have to do this with Dr. True's Elixir. Simply a few doses and then quick relief. The three generations of my family have been kept healthy by using it."

Syptoms of worms, constipation, offensive breath, swollen upper lip, deranged stomach, occasional pains in the bowels, pale face, eyes heavy and dull, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, red points on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Nearly every child and grown-up needs a laxative sometime. The fond parents safeguard the health of their children, as well as their own, by keeping their bowels in condition. The herbs used in Dr. True's Elixir are imported and of strictly pure quality. No harmful drugs. Keep the bowels regular by using Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. 40c—60c—$1.20. Adv.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE OMER GERMAIN JAPANESE FUND

The funeral of Omer Germain, 23-year-old son of Mrs. Anna Germain of 48 Ferry lane, this city, killed in an automobile accident in Albany, N. Y. last Monday night, took place at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning from the Church of the Assumption, Albany. Members of his family at the services included Miss Blanche L. Germain.

cashier at the Waldorf lunch in this city and his brother, Alfred P. Germain, also of this city.

For the past few years, the former Lowell boy had been employed in the luncheon business in Albany, being connected with the Waldorf and Alcazars, and the employees of both these companies sent beautiful flowers. There were many other floral and spiritual tributes. Burial was in St. Agnes cemetery, Albany.

The local Japanese relief fund was boosted almost $600 today, but the total so far subscribed is still far away from Lowell's quota of $800. The additional contributions acknowledged today were as follows:

DR. CUNO AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Germany can pay no more than 20,000,000,000 gold marks in reparations, the sum offered in the last proposal made by Berlin. Dr. Carl Joseph Wilhelm Cuno, former chancellor of Germany, declared today on his arrival on the Rheine.

IRISH SOCIETIES HOLD MASS MEETING

At a well attended mass meeting of local Irish societies in the new headquarters in the Grosvenor building last night, it was announced that an entire week will be devoted to a carnival in the Casino in Thorndike street, at a date to be announced in the near future. Competent committees will be appointed to superintend the affair, which promises to eclipse any former event of this nature conducted under Hibernian auspices in this city. While the bazaar held in Associate hall last winter was a success from every angle, socially and financially, the coming affair will surpass it by far.

if the sentiment expressed on all sides last night reaches fulfillment. James J. McMahon, president of the central council, presided at the meeting. He explained that the object of the gathering was to discuss ways and means of maintaining the new quarters in an up-to-date headquarters and to plan for social functions during the coming fall and winter months. He called upon John O'Sullivan, president of Division 11, gave a very interesting talk on the progress of the organization. James O'Sullivan spoke along the same lines. Secretary John Barrett gave a brief history of the local divisions and emphasized the value of continued co-operative effort.

Autoists Arrested on Boulevard Arraigned in Court—Other Cases

Five automobile drivers were taken into custody last night on the Pawtucket boulevard, for alleged violation of the automobile laws and they were called before Judge Enright in district court this morning.

Edmund Gagnon, Charles O'Neil and Lawrence E. Simpson each pleaded guilty to operating without licenses and they were fined $10 each. A similar complaint against Thomas J. Welch was filed, for although his license had expired, it was shown that he had made application for renewal. Walter F. Burke pleaded not guilty to a similar complaint and his case was continued until September 22.

The arrests of the above were made by Sergt. James J. Kennedy and Motorcycle Officer (Daniel) M. Lynch, who with several state inspectors headed by Examiner Eugene E. Louprie, of this district, stationed themselves on the boulevard last night, to tag machines with improper headlights.

Last night's examination were made at the request of State Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin, and approximately 150 machines were held up by the inspectors. More would have been tagged had not the supply of tags run out.

The five young men arrested were included among those who had been tagged.

Arthur J. Sauvejean was called to answer to a charge of operating an automobile without a certificate of registration, but Deputy Downey informed the court that the man was not the one who was operating the car. A warrant will be sworn for the right man. The complaint against Sauvejean was dismissed.

John Fielder was before the court for drunkenness. It was his fifth appearance within a year, although he made a plea for leniency, the court imposed a suspended sentence of five months in the house of correction and he was ordered committed.

Joseph Peters, charged with drunkenness, had his case continued for two weeks.

During the six months ended June 30, 40 auto accidents figured in the world's news, involving 100 deaths.

In England 11,000 passengers were carried by aircraft last year.
